Media Policies/Ticket Information

The 2003-04 University of Connecticut Basketball Media Guide/ Yearbook has been published to provide pertinent information concerning the Connecticut basketball program and to assist the media in its continuing coverage of Husky basketball.

The Connecticut Athletic Communications Office staff hopes to make your working experience enjoyable. We appreciate your interest in Connecticut basketball and we are always available to assist all media members in their coverage. Please take note of the following guidelines. Should you have any questions, do not hesitate to contact our office immediately.

INFORMATION AND CREDENTIALS: Requests for home game media passes, photographer's passes and broadcasting accommodations must be made at least one full week in advance of the game date. All approved credential requests will be left at the Media Entrance of the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion or Hartford Civic Center.

MEDIA AREA SERVICES: The UConn Office of Athletic Communications provides all working media members a complete press packet prior to each home game. Full halftime and final statistics will be distributed.

PARKING PASSES: Media parking, if requested in advance of the date of the game, is available in Storrs. Media members are required to park only in the designated parking area. Event management staff will be on hand at every game to direct the media to the parking area. For games at the Hartford Civic Center, there is no media parking provided.

RADIO AND TRANSMITTING POLICIES: Permission to broadcast Connecticut home basketball games must be obtained one full week in advance of the game. The University of Connecticut has up to three phone lines available for all 2003-04 basketball opponents playing in the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion and the Hartford Civic Center. The cost of each line is $75.00 on a per-game basis. The lines are standard lines with jack, and all lines will be offered to the opponent's commercial station first. Please make all checks payable to "The University of Connecticut".

WORKING MEDIA FILING SPACE: Print and electronic media planning to file postgame reports will work in the UConn Media Work Area at the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion, adjacent to Alumni Court. The work area has several phones available for charge card or collect calls only. Those filing postgame reports at the Hartford Civic Center will be working in the Lee-McGinley Media Room.

POSTGAME PROCEDURES: After a mandatory 10-minute cooling off period, coaches and players of the competing teams will be available to the media in the interview area of Gampel Pavilion. Any and all coaches and players requested for interviews will be brought to this area for postgame interviews. Interview areas will be designated at the Hartford Civic Center. The UConn women's basketball locker room is closed to media.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Accredited photographers only may work along the playing court endlines behind the restriction lines. No photographers are allowed access to the home or visiting bench areas.

PRACTICE COVERAGE, PLAYER AND COACH INTERVIEWS: All requests for coach and player interviews must be directed through the UConn Office of Athletic Communications with at least a 24-hour advance notice, except for contact with individual players and coaches in the interview area immediately following home and away games. Please call in advance (on a weekly basis) for the open practice schedule. Coaches and players will not be available for interviews following a closed practice session. On days of games, absolutely no interviews will be granted prior to game time.

2003-04 UCONN WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TICKET INFORMATION

SEASON TICKETS: There are 17 home games scheduled during the 2003-04 season, including seven regular season games at the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion, including one exhibition game in Gampel Pavilion; and eight regular season games at the Hartford Civic Center, and one exhibition game. If available, season ticket packages are priced at $160.00 for eight Gampel games and $180.00 for seven Civic Center games.

SINGLE GAME TICKETS: If available, all single game reserved seat tickets are priced at $20 for games in Gampel Pavilion and the Hartford Civic Center. Single game tickets will be sold on a game-by-game basis following completion of all season ticket processing and after distribution of UConn student single game tickets. Those tickets will be on sale at Ticketmaster outlets throughout the region, by calling Ticketmaster at (860) 525-4500 or (203) 624-0033, or in person at the UConn Athletic Ticket Office in Storrs.

BIG EAST TOURNAMENT TICKETS: If available, tickets for the 2004 BIG EAST Women's Basketball Championship can be purchased from the UConn Athletic Ticket Office.

UCONN STUDENT TICKETS: All UConn student tickets are priced at $2 per game with a valid UConn ID.

DIRECT ALL TICKET INQUIRIES TO: UConn Athletic Ticket Office, University of Connecticut, 2111 Hillside Road, Storrs, CT 06269-3078. Call the ticket office at (860) 486-2724 or toll free at 877-AT-UCONN. The location for the UConn Athletic Ticket Office is the walkway between the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion and the Hugh S. Greer Field House.

Television Coverage

The extensive coverage of the Connecticut women's basketball team, home and away, makes the Huskies the most televised and talked-about women's basketball program in the nation.

A minimum of three UConn games will be televised nationally during the 2003-04 regular season and that figure should jump even higher during the national postseason tournament.

The three national appearances for the Huskies this season include UConn's annual meeting on national television against Tennessee, which will be shown on espn2. The Huskies will also face-off against rival Duke, on CBS. This marks the 14th consecutive year that UConn women's basketball will be televised nationally on ESPN and the 13th straight season that the Huskies have been seen on CBS. UConn can also be seen on espn2 as the Huskies will face Rutgers University on Martin Luther King Day on January 19 at the Hartford Civic Center.

For the eighth year in a row, UConn and Tennessee's annual showdown will be shown on national television, making the jump from CBS to espn2. This year's game will be on February 5 in Knoxville, Tenn. at the Thompson-Boling Arena.

On a regional level, UConn will play at Seton Hall on January 24 on the YES Network. Coverage of the UConn game at Rutgers on February 14 will be aired on Madison Square Garden Network (MSG) and Fox Sports New England.

CONNECTICUT PUBLIC TELEVISION

UConn women's basketball fans will be able to follow the Huskies throughout the 2003-04 season on Connecticut Public Television.

During 2003-04, CPTV plans to televise live a minimum of 22 UConn women's basketball games—giving Connecticut wall-to-wall television coverage throughout the season.

Meghan Pattyson-Culmo and Bob Picozzi call the broadc[illegible]TV

UConn women's basketball television coverage on CPTV began late in the 1993-94 season and that coverage continues to grow each season, providing the Huskies the most comprehensive local/regional television package of any women's basketball program in the nation. In addition to televising the UConn women's games, CPTV also produces numerous women's basketball coach's shows a year, featuring Husky head coach Geno Auriemma.

During the past eight seasons, 195 UConn women's basketball games have been televised by CPTV.

Included in CPTV's planned coverage of games during the 2003-04 season are 13 BIG EAST Conference games as well as selected non-conference games not being carried by national networks.

Bob Picozzi and former UConn women's basketball standout Meghan Pattyson-Culmo will call the game broadcasts. Pattyson will also serve as the host of the Geno Auriemma coach's show.

NATIONAL TV

- ESPN2's coverage of the women's basketball game pitting No. 2 Connecticut at No. 1 Duke on February 1, averaged 1,226,000 household impressions and a 1.45 rating, making it the most-viewed regular season women's basketball game ever on ESPN or ESPN2 and the highest rated in 20 years (since ESPN's telecast of Tennessee vs. LA Teech on December 14, 1982, generated a 1.7 rating). In addition, the telecast was ESPN2's third most-watched college basketball game, including post season and men's action.

- The UConn vs. Oklahoma NCAA Championship game on March 31, 2002, which was televised on ESPN attracted an average audience of 3,487,262 households, making it ESPN's most viewed college basketball game (men's or women's) ever.

- The UConn/Notre Dame BIG EAST Championship game at Gampel Pavilion on March, 6, 2001, garnered a 0.96 Nielson rating (730,914 households), marking it the highest rated and most watched women's basketball game in ESPN2 history- including NCAA Tournament Games.

- The UConn/Notre Dame BIG EAST Championship game at Gampel Pavilion on March, 6, 2001, was the third most watched non-NCAA Tournament women's baketball game in ESPN or ESPN2 history. UConn also holds the top two spots.

- On Sunday, March 11, 2001, ESPN Classic presented its first-ever women's basketball Instant Classic, the 2001 BIG EAST Women's Championship game between No. 2 Connecticut and No. 1 Notre Dame from March 6, 2001, in Gampel Pavilion.

- The 2000 National Championship game between UConn and Tennessee collected a staggering 31.1 Nielson rating and a 39 share in the Hartford/New Haven market from 9 to 11:15 p.m. The ratings peaked at 11 p.m. when the number grew to a 36.0 rating and a 57 share. The UConn game also grabbed 88 percent of the basic cable audience for that Sunday.

- During the first regular season meeting on Saturday, January 8, 2000, in Knoxville, Tenn., the UConn women's team vs. 2nd-ranked Tennessee drew a Nielson rating of 18.86 in the Hartford market. The game doubled the ratings of the NFL playoff game which drew only a 9.48. In fact, the UConn women had a higher local rating than all four of the weekend's football playoff games.

- In 1999-2000, the Connecticut vs. Tennessee clash at Storrs on Wednesday, Feb. 2, during Rivalry Week on ESPN became the first-ever women's basketball game televised live during prime time.

- Connecticut is one of three women's basketball programs to appear on live national television in each of the last 13 years. The Huskies join Stanford and Tennessee in this elite group.

- Connecticut Basketball has received the most extensive national and regional TV coverage of any team in the nation during the last 12 years. UConn has made 329 appearances on television since 1990-91 (nine times in 1990-91, eight times in 1991-92, seven times in 1992-93, 13 times in 1993-94, 19 in 1994-95, 33 in 1995-96, 30 in 1996-97, 32 in 1997-98, 30 in 1998-9, 36 in 1999-2000, 35 in 2000-01, 39 in 2001-02 and 38 in 2002-03), including numerous live national telecasts on CBS, ESPN and ESPN2.

Radio Coverage

"No other women's basketball program in the country receives the media attention we do on a daily basis. There are lots of teams that win and have success on and off the court, but with the University of Connecticut women's basketball team there's a style, a feeling, a sense of something beyond winning. It goes beyond the game. There is no way to put your finger on exactly what makes us unique or why fans want to read about us, watch our games on television, and listen to our games on the radio. But with the incredible coverage we get, the message of UConn basketball stretches across the nation."
HEAD COACH GENO AURIEMMA

WTIC RADIO (1080 AM)

For the seventh consecutive season, the University of Connecticut women's basketball games will be broadcast on the UConn/WTIC Radio Network. WTIC and its powerful 50,000 watt signal reaches 23 states and sections of Canada. WTIC will carry UConn's entire regular season schedule, plus any and all BIG EAST Tournament and NCAA Tournament games that UConn might be involved in. WTIC is also the radio broadcast partner of Husky men's basketball and football. UConn women's games are called by Joe D'Ambrosio, Randy LaVigne and Bob Joyce. In addition to WTIC, Husky women's basketball can be heard on the following stations: WILI in Willimantic (1400-AM); WLIS in Old Saybrook (1420-AM); WNLK in Norwalk (1350-AM); WSTC in Stamford (1400-AM); WMRD in Middletown (1150-AM); WSUB in New London (980-AM) and WICC in Bridgeport (600-AM).

Defending Champs Have Sights Set on "Three-peat"

Just when we think we know the standard for excellence in college women's basketball, Geno Auriemma and the University of Connecticut decide to raise the bar once again. The 2003-04 season should bring much of the same, featuring the return of the entire roster for the 2003 National Champions.

UConn comes off a 2002-03 season in which it changed the definition of the word improbable. En route to the program's fourth national championship, the Huskies set a Division I women's record for most consecutive wins with 70 straight victories.

Overall, the Connecticut tradition is four National Championships, seven Final Fours, 15 straight NCAA Tournament Appearances and 24 BIG EAST regular season and tournament championships. UConn has always been a program rich with tradition and the 2003-04 team will look to continue Connecticut's dominance in women's basketball.

THE SENIORS

Leading the way will be senior guard Diana Taurasi (Chino, Calif.). Taurasi was named the consensus National Player of the Year in 2003 and could become UConn's second three-time Kodak All-American with another strong season. In the six games of the 2003 NCAA Tournament, Taurasi averaged 26.2 points per game, including a career-high 35 points in the second round, and enters the 2003-04 season with momentum and confidence. Taurasi's athleticism, versatility and unique court vision make her one of the most gifted players in the game today. The guard not only led the team in points (17.9 ppg), rebounds (6.1 rpg), assists (4.4 apg) and blocks (1.2 bpg) but was also the emotional leader on the court. Taurasi has the capability and drive to close out her Connecticut career with staggering numbers and a third national championship under her belt.

Joining Taurasi in the 2002-03 championship backcourt was guard Maria Conlon (Derby, Conn.). Conlon, a sharpshooter from outside, served as one of UConn's top reserve guards her first two seasons at Connecticut before emerging as a consistent starter in 2002-03. The guard started 29 games for the Huskies as a junior and shared point duties with Taurasi. She averaged 6.9 points per game and 3.4 assists per game, and was a major catalyst in UConn's 2003 Championship after her performance of 11-points, six assists and no turnovers. As a senior, Conlon will be looked to for leadership and composure on the floor, as well as support in the scoring column.

Just as Taurasi is the emotional leader on the floor, senior Morgan Valley (Colchester, Vt.) is the emotional leader everywhere else. Valley has been hampered by foot injuries throughout her career, but her determination and love for the game has made her an integral part of the squad. Behind the scenes Valley is the model student-athlete striving to improve daily, and during the 2002-03 championship campaign she was able to contibute more than ever before to the success of the Huskies. Valley started in 18 games for UConn and made significant contributions off the bench in 16 others. She grabbed a career-high seven rebounds during a strong showing versus Rutgers (1/8/03) and had a season-high nine points versus St. Joseph's (12/22/02). Valley, who has improved in all areas of the game, is hoping to make the 2003-04 season her most memorable yet.

THE JUNIORS

The 2003-04 junior class is led by a pair of versatile student athletes in Jessica Moore (Palmer, Alaska) and Ashley Battle (Pittsburgh, Pa.). Both redshirted the 2000-01 campaign and have benefitted a great deal from the extra year of experience. Moore started all 38 games in 2002-03 and finished as UConn's second leading scorer (10.6 ppg) and rebounder (5.9 rpg). She was extremely effective both offensively and defensively from her center position scoring at will and keeping opponents off the boards. Moore has improved her shooting range as well as her on court intensity level and should be one of the top performers in the BIG EAST for the 2003-04 campaign.

Battle, the 2002 BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year, was UConn's greatest weapon off the bench and was the most athletic student-athlete on the floor. She raised the energy level of any game the moment she entered the contest and was called upon for a steal or an offensive rebound when a big play was needed. In 2002-03, she averaged 8.3 points per game and 5.4 rebounds per game. She had a career-high seven steals and 17 points at Georgetown (2/26/03) and was UConn's defensive specialist throughout NCAA play. Battle's speed and ball handling skills make her dangerous around the perimeter, however, her strength also makes her a scoring threat inside.

Ashley Valley (Colchester, Vt.), the younger of the Valley sisters, has been a reserve point guard for the last two seasons and continues to increase her playing time each year. She played valuable minutes versus Notre Dame (2/23/03) and Providence (3/1/03) and is one of UConn's most aggressive defenders. Valley saw action in 31 games for the Huskies and is looking to become a steady contributor in 2003-04.

UConn's only walk-on, junior guard Stacey Marron (Albuquerque, N.M.), has continued to improve and impress the Husky faithful. Marron sees limited time off the bench but makes the most of her minutes with a great shooter's touch and quick passes. Marron saw action in 28 games in 2002-03 and finished shooting 10-of-17 from behind the three-point arc. One of UConn's hardest workers day-in and day-out, Marron plays an important role for the Huskies.

THE SOPHOMORES

UConn's freshman class of 2002-03 contributed immediately and matured quickly en route to its first championship at UConn. As sophomores, the four student-athletes will be relied heavily upon for continued success.

Willnett Crockett (Harbor City, Calif.) is one of the quickest centers in the country and is already relied heavily upon for her footwork around the basket. Coming off the bench, Crockett picked up some of UConn's biggest rebounds, both defensively and offensively, during the Final Four. She averaged 5.7 points per game and 4.6 rebounds per game for the Huskies. Her strength and speed make her just another weapon the Huskies can use around the basket.

Ann Strother (Castle Rock, Colo.) was the only other Husky besides Moore to start all 38 games. She was named to the 2003 NCAA Final Four All-Tournament team for her outstanding play in the title game. What the nation saw Strother do against Tennessee for the championship is what the Huskies saw day-in and day-out. Strother averaged 10.1 points per game and 3.1 assists per game as the third leading scorer on the squad. She is a relentless defender and her size and quickness makes her impossible to guard.

Another tough scorer to guard is forward Barbara Turner (Cleveland, Ohio). Turner averaged 10.0 points per game and 5.8 rebounds per game during her rookie campaign. She began the season as a spark off the bench, however, she started all six tournament games for the Huskies and averaged 9.5 points per game during UConn's title run. Turner is one of the quickest and most creative scorers in the league and should be one of Connecticut's top scoring threats as a sophomore. Turner and Strother both competed on the 2003 Pan American Games squad this summer for USA Basketball.

Nicole Wolff sat out the 2002-03 championship season due to stress fractures after starting the first 10 games. She proved herself immediately and the Huskies are looking forward to her becoming a regular contributor. Wolff has one of the nicest shooting touches in the nation and will be another offensive option for Connecticut.

THE NEWCOMERS

The Huskies have the luxury of adding two more talented players to a championship lineup that didn't lose anyone. The newcomers chose Connecticut because of its rich championship tradition and are looking to become part of its championship history.

Sophomore Barbara Turner

Liz Sherwood (Castle Rock, Co.), a high school teammate of Strother, is a 6-4 center who brings size and strength to the floor. Sherwood helped lead Highlands Ranch High School to back-to-back state titles and averaged 27.0 ppg, 11.0 rpg, 8.0 bpg as a senior. A 2003 WBCA, McDonald's, and Parade First Team All-American, she was named the 2003 Rocky Mountain News 5A State Player of the Year. Sherwood will join Moore and Crockett giving the Huskies one of the most formidable frontcourts in the country.

Sophomore Willnett Crockett

Kiana Robinson (Brandon, Fla.) will join UConn's backcourt as a 5-8 guard. Robinson is deceptively quick and can score from anywhere on the floor. She averaged 23 points, seven assists and 10 rebounds per game as a senior at the Laurinburg Institute in North Carolina. A WBCA Honorable Mention All-American, Robinson's style of play will fit nicely within the UConn offense.

THE SCHEDULE

The Huskies will be in search of its third consecutive national championship title when opening the 2003-04 season. UConn will begin the season with four straight home games beginning with Western Michigan on November 23, Florida State on November 25, Holy Cross on November 30 and finally Sienna on December 2. The Huskies will travel back out west, as they did in 2000, taking on Pepperdine on December 5 and Southern California on December 7.

UConn will return home to the Hartford Civic Center on December 18, taking on Arizona State and then will travel to the home of UConn's 2000 Championship title, Philadelphia, when St. Joseph's will host UConn on December 21. The Huskies will close out the New Year on December 29, at home, taking on Atlantic Coast Conference for North Carolina State.

One of the hardest challenges of the season, and the Huskies first nationally televised (CBS) game of the season, the Duke Blue Devils come to Hartford, in a rematch from their 2003 loss to UConn.

Connecticut will begin BIG EAST play on January 7 at West Virginia, starting an eight-game BIG EAST schedule to close out January. Included in the month's schedule are home games against Georgetown (Jan. 10), Boston College (Jan. 17), Rutgers (Jan. 19) and St. John's (Jan. 31). The Huskies will be traveling to Notre Dame (Jan. 13), Seton Hall (Jan. 24) and Virginia Tech (Jan. 27).

Opening February, UConn will travel to nemesis Tennessee on February 5, and will be televised on espn2. Connecticut will play host to BIG EAST school's Miami (Feb. 8), Pittsburgh (Feb. 17), Providence (Feb. 25) and West Virginia (March 2), will taking to the road against Syracuse (Feb. 11), Rutgers (Feb. 14), Boston College (Feb. 21) and Villanova (Feb. 28).

GENO AURIEMMA • 19th SEASON

Overall Record
501-99 (.835)
18 Seasons

BIG EAST Record
295-57 (.831)
18 Seasons

NCAA Tournament Record
47-11 (.810)
15 Years

Geno Auriemma has redefined the meaning of success in college women's basketball in his 18 years as head coach of the University of Connecticut.

On the court, his success includes four national championships and complete dominance in the BIG EAST Conference. Off the court, success means a flawless graduation rate and one of the most beloved sports teams in the country.

Auriemma is a five-time national coach-of-the-year and has been named the BIG EAST coach-of-the-year six times, including the 2002-03 award.

His 18-year overall record stands at 501-99 (.835), making him first all-time among active Division I coaches in winning percentage and the second fastest coach overall to eclipse the 500-win mark.

Auriemma's 2003-03 team, which did not have a single senior on it, mirrored his teams of the past. That squad continued the winning precedence set by the 2001-02 national championship team by bringing home UConn's fourth women's basketball national championship and also set a new NCAA Division I Women's record for most consecutive wins with 70-straight. Connecticut broke the previous record of 54 set by Louisiana Tech with its 55th-straight win on January 18, 2003, versus Georgetown in the Hartford Civic Center.

The Huskies finished the regular season undefeated with a perfect 29-0 record, the fourth time in school history. They went on to capture UConn's 10th straight BIG EAST regular season title, (13th overall), and continued their winning ways into the postseason making their seventh Final Four appearance.

After two scintillating games in the Final Four, the Huskies earned their fourth NCAA national championship and became only the third school to do so in back-to-back years. Diana Taurasi was named the 2003 Final Four Most Outstanding Player, while freshman Ann Strother was named to the Final Four All-Tournament team. It was the first time in women's or men's basketball history that a program earned the national championship without a senior on its roster.

Accolades for the 2002-03 season continued to pour in. Auriemma was named the BIG EAST Coach of the Year as well as the United States Basketball Writer's Association (USBWA) Women's Basketball Coach of the Year and Associated Press Coach of the Year. Taurasi garnered Player of the Year honors from the Associated Press, USBWA and Naismith and earned the Wade Trophy and the NCAA Honda Award for the nation's most outstanding women's basketball player. Taurasi earned her second straight Kodak All-American award and was named an Associated Press First Team All-Amercan for her outstanding play and leadership during UConn's 37-1 run through the 2002-03 championship season.

Auriemma's 2001-02 squad recorded the second undefeated season in program history with a 39-0 mark and registered UConn's third national championship and sixth Final Four appearance. Auriemma's teams also won the 1995 and 2000 national titles.

Featuring Kodak All-Americans Sue Bird, Swin Cash and Diana Taurasi, the 2001-02 Huskies posted an NCAA record-tying 39 wins and a 35.4 point average margin of victory, another NCAA record. His team also earned its 12th BIG EAST regular season title and 11th BIG EAST tournament title as the Huskies made their 14th straight NCAA appearance.

The 1999-2000 national championship season included a then-school-record 19-straight weeks ranked No. 1 in the national polls and a final record of 36-1.

UConn captured the program's first national title in 1995, when Auriemma led the Huskies to a perfect 35-0 record. UConn was only the second team in Division I women's basketball history to go undefeated on the way to the national championship. The Huskies team became the first unbeaten team in NCAA history (all divisions, men or women) to win 35 games in a season.

Under Auriemma's direction, UConn ranked second nationally in Division I victories in the 1990's (Jan. 1, 1990-Dec. 31, 1999) with 290 total wins. The Huskies were also second in the nation in total winning percentage (.860) in the decade as well as establishing a BIG EAST record for conference victories (158).

After inheriting a Husky program that had just one winning season in its 11-year history, Auriemma has posted 17 winning seasons since arriving at UConn in August of 1985. The Huskies now also hold every BIG EAST single game and single season home court attendance record.

#- BIG EAST Regular Season Champions, *- BIG EAST Tournament Champions

Since 1988-89, the first season the Huskies earned a BIG EAST regular season championship, UConn ranks No. 1 among all BIG EAST teams in league regular season wins (233-22, a .908 winning percentage). Coupled with UConn's 40-4 record in BIG EAST Tournament action since 1989, the Huskies have posted an impressive overall mark of 273-26 (.911) against BIG EAST competition in the past 15 years.

The development of national caliber student-athletes has been Auriemma's forte during his UConn coaching tenure. Every recruited freshman that has played for Auriemma at Connecticut and completed her eligibility at UConn has obtained her undergraduate degree.

Impressively, since the 1991-92 season, 26 of UConn's starters — 16 different players — have been on the Dean's List.

Among these 16 players are four of the most highly acclaimed women's basketball players ever – Rebecca Lobo, Jennifer Rizzotti, Kara Wolters and Bird. All four of these student-athletes earned Associated Press National Player of the Year honors and won the Wade Trophy and Honda Broderick Awards. Most recently, Diana Taurasi joined the elite four by being named a consensus National Player of the Year in 2002-03.

Auriemma has coached 10 First Team Kodak All-Americans, with the most recent selections of Bird, Cash and Taurasi. This includes 10 consecutive seasons (1993-2003) where at least one UConn player earned Kodak All-America honors and a total of 17 honors, with Taurasi earning her second honor in 2003.

UConn's home court record also stands as one of the most impressive in the nation. In Auriemma's tenure, UConn is 268-27 at home against collegiate opponents, including 15-0 in 2002-03, for a sparkling .908 winning percentage.

By building such a dynamic program, Huskymania fan support and enthusiasm is at an all-time high. UConn was second nationally in total home attendance for all Division I women's programs in 2002-03, attracting 192,888 fans for 15 home dates in Harry A. Gampel Pavilion and the Hartford Civic Center, including two NCAA games. The Huskies boasted an advance sellout of every game in Gampel Pavilion and the Hartford Civic Center.

Prior to taking the UConn position, Auriemma served as the primary assistant women's coach at the University of Virginia under head coach Debbie Ryan from 1981-85. He helped lead the Cavaliers to the Atlantic Coast Conference championship in 1984.

Before his Virginia position, Auriemma was assistant women's basketball coach at St. Joseph's University in Philadelphia with then-head coach Jim Foster (now Ohio State women's basketball head coach). He also coached boys' basketball at his high school alma mater, Bishop Kenrick High School in Norristown, Pa., from 1979-81.

Auriemma has found success even beyond the college coaching ranks due to his involvement with USA Basketball. In the summer of 2000, Auriemma represented the United States at the Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia, as an assistant coach of the gold medal winning Olympic Team

That same summer, Auriemma led the 2000 USA Women's Basketball Junior World Championship team to a gold medal in the COPABA Junior World Cup Qualifying Tournament in Argentina. Auriemma and the squad advanced to the 2001 FIBA Junior World Championship for women held in the Czech Republic in July of 2001, and returned with the bronze. In April of 1996, he was co-head coach of the National Senior All-Stars when the All-Stars met the United States National Team.

During the summer of 1996, he served as coach of the USA Basketball Select Team in Colorado Springs, Colo. In January of 1995, Auriemma was named an assistant coach of the USA World University Games Women's Basketball Team, which played in Fukuoka, Japan, in the summer of 1995; due to personal conflicts, however, he had to relinquish that position. He also served as head coach of the West Team at the 1993 U.S. Olympic Festival in San Antonio, Texas.

In the summer of 2002, Auriemma was selected as a member of the inaugural induction class to the New England Basketball Hall of Fame.

In addition to his coaching duties, Auriemma serves on several national basketball committees. He was a four-year member of the Kodak All-America Selection Committee and was named chair of that committee in January of 1992. He has also been a voting member of the *USA TODAY/*WBCA Top 25 Poll.

An accomplished speaker, Auriemma also is involved in numerous regional and state charitable and educational efforts. For the last seven years, Auriemma has been the chair of Why-

Me of New England, a fund-raising organization for breast cancer research, and also has served as the State of Connecticut honorary chair for the American Heart Association.

In the fall of 1993, Auriemma was elected into the National Mortar Board academic honor society for his outstanding contributions to UConn academics and for community service.

Auriemma currently serves as co-chair of the Connecticut Arthritis Foundation. In May of 1994, Auriemma was awarded the prestigious UConn Club Outstanding Contribution Award for his service and commitment to Husky athletics.

In tribute to the Huskies' first NCAA National Championship, and for his commitment to intercollegiate athletes and service in the community, Auriemma received two special awards in 1995.

He was one of four recipients of the 1995 Center for the Study of Sport in Society "National Student-Athlete Day Giant Steps Award", presented in Boston. He was also honored with "Geno Auriemma Day" at the National Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass., on August 9, 1995.

Auriemma has given back to the university as well. In November 1998, he and his wife Kathy gave a $125,000 gift to the University of Connecticut Library.

Auriemma is a 1981 graduate of West Chester with a B.A. in political science. He resides in Manchester, Conn., with Kathy and their three children: Jenna (19), Alyssa (17) and Michael (15).

Questions and Answers with Geno Auriemma

Q: What will your biggest challenge be in regards to keeping the team focused this season?
A: "I think the biggest challenge that we are going to face as coaches is going to be figuring out a way to keep everything fresh and new. We need to make everyday of practice a good day and not allowing ourselves to think too much about March or April. We have to focus on what we need to do that day and each game. Each game has to be a special occurrence because the danger is that if we just concentrate on the national championship, we can miss out on a lot between now and then."

Q: What players are you looking at to step up their play to deter opposing defenses from putting too much of their defensive focus on stopping Diana Taurasi?
A: "I think the obvious thing about our team is that Diana is such a big part of what we do. My guess is that Jessica Moore, Ann Strother and Barbara Turner really need to establish from the beginning and that they are much better than they were last season. That will give us a really balanced attack, which we had last year, but even more so. I would expect that they will do that because they are a year older and because of their experience in the NCAA Tournament. Those three stand out but I think the burden is going to fall on all of them at some point."

Q: What are the biggest differences you notice between this year's team and last year's national championship edition?
A: "So far, I notice a certain level of confidence they have that comes from winning it all. There is this self-assurance that I think they walk around with, but at the same time I have seen them work at as high a level as I have ever seen them work. That is a great sign because it doesn't look like they are content with what happened last year. I think they are proud of what they accomplished and they feel good about themselves. I think they are just as motivated and just as hungry as they were last year."

Q: What is the most difficult thing about defending a national championship?
A: "We have been in this situation only one other time. In some ways, it's because of how difficult it is to do something two years in a row. I think that leveling a little bit more of the playing field in women's basketball has made it hard to recreate the great season that they had last year and its hard to recreate staying injury free. The biggest plus is the knowledge that they can do it, they know they can do it, they have done it and a feeling of we are better than anyone else if we play our A game. Helping them understand what's going on is probably the most difficult thing."

Q: What would be the best advice you could give a young girl who has a dream of playing for your program?
A: "One of the great things about being in middle school or high school is that everything you can imagine is possible. If you are there and you are 12 or 17 and you're thinking someday I would like to play at UConn, that is the first step in making it a reality. The next step is working towards that dream becoming a reality while at the same time preparing yourself if in fact it does happen to make sure you maximize it. You have to prepare yourself that if it doesn't happen, you need a Plan B and being happy. Then trying to make Plan B work as hard as you would make playing at UConn work."

Alumni Speak Out About Geno Auriemma

Kerry Bascom-Poliquin '90
"Coach Auriemma has the unique ability to tap into your full potential and make you the best player you can be. His hard work and complete dedication to the players and the program makes UConn an unbelievable experience."

Rebecca Lobo '95
"I have had the privilege of being coached by some of the biggest names in women's basketball; however, no coach has made a bigger impact on my life, both on and off the court, than Coach Auriemma. He challenges each student-athlete to gain something from their basketball experience and apply it to life after college. He got the most out of me as a player and taught me important lessons that carry into my daily routine. A young woman is very fortunate to have the chance to join the Connecticut family."

Wendy Davis '92
"Coach Auriemma is one of the reasons that I am a college coach today. He has taught me how to build relationships with student-athletes, which is a big part of being a successful coach. I have kept close ties with UConn and know that I can still call the coaching staff any day, at any time, and they will always be there for me."

Kathy (Ferrier) Gibson '93
"My four years at the University of Connecticut were filled with great friendships and memorable experiences. Coach Auriemma provided me with opportunities, discipline and character that has extended far beyond the basketball court. My thanks to him for giving me the chance to play for UConn, the best program in the country."

Peggy (Walsh) Myers '86
"I had the great privilege of playing for coach during his first year of coaching at UConn, and it was an incredible experience. I now have the privilege to work for him and have watched him develop into one of the top coaches in the nation. Through it all he has been my coach, my boss, but most of all my friend."

Debbie (Baer) Fiske '92
"Coach Auriemma and his staff create a secure, safe and comfortable playing atmosphere. They run a top-ranked program with a winning attitude which carries beyond UConn. If I had a daughter, I would love for her to play for someone like Coach Auriemma someday."

Associate Head Coach Chris Dailey

CHRIS DAILEY • 19TH SEASON

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

Associate head coach Chris Dailey is in her 19th season with the Connecticut basketball program. Dailey has been instrumental in teaming with head coach Geno Auriemma to build the UConn team into a national power, including four national championships, and she is the coordinator of Connecticut's highly successful recruiting efforts. Under her direction, Connecticut's recruiting base is nationwide. Arriving at Connecticut in the summer of 1985 along with Auriemma, Dailey served as primary assistant coach from 1985-88. In September of 1988, she was promoted to Connecticut associate head coach.

In Auriemma's absence during the entire 1997 BIG EAST Conference Tournament from March 1-4 (due to the death of his father, Donato Auriemma), Dailey served as head coach, leading Connecticut to its fourth consecutive BIG EAST Tournament Championship. This marked the second time that a Dailey-directed UConn team earned the BIG EAST Tournament title. UConn's 1989 team won its first league tourney crown under her direction (while Auriemma served a suspension for a scheduling error).

Dailey is a 1982 graduate of Rutgers with a bachelor's degree in health and physical education. She received her master's degree from Connecticut in educational administration. A native of New Brunswick, N.J., Dailey is no stranger to collegiate basketball success. She was a four-year forward (from 1978-82) for the nationally-ranked Rutgers Scarlet Knights. Dailey served as a team captain as a junior and senior, and, as a senior in 1981-82, she helped lead her Rutgers squad to the AIAW Division I National Championship, as the Scarlet Knights defeated Texas 83-77. During her four years at Rutgers, the team compiled a record of 108-23 (.824).

Prior to coming to Connecticut, Dailey served as the Cornell assistant basketball coach (1982-83) before returning to her alma mater as top assistant under head coach Theresa Grentz from 1983-85.

In 1992, Chris was inducted into the Rutgers University Lady Knight Hall of Fame as a member of the 1982 National Championship Team. During the 1995-96 academic year, she was one of eight alumnae of Rutgers' Douglass College featured in the college's national fund-raising campaign. In the winter of 2002, Dailey was inducted into the prestigious New Jersey Sports Writers Association Hall of Fame alongside the likes of Bobby Valentine, Jorge Posada, Andre Tippitt and Carl Banks. She also was honored with the NJSWA "Distinguished Service to Basketball" award. Most recently in June of 2002, Dailey received the Clare Award from the Saint Franciscan Life Center which is given to a woman who exemplifies leadership, commitment to athletics and service to the community.

In addition to her coaching duties, Dailey is involved in a number of regional charitable efforts as an honorary chair and as a noted speaker. In the summer of 2000, Dailey was a recipient of the 2000 Girl Scouts Women of Merit Award, given to women who best exemplify the qualities of a girl scout. She served four years as honorary chair of the Connecticut chapter of the Multiple Sclerosis Associations' annual "Walk-a-thon". In October 1997, she was named the Connecticut Trails Counsel 1997 Woman of Distinction by the Girl Scouts Association.

The last several years, she has also been involved as the honorary chair to the following organizations: Food Allergy Network, March of Dimes-Women in Sports Celebration, Camp Courant and the Manchester Area Conference of Churches.

Dailey is a 1977 graduate of St. Peter's High School, New Brunswick, NJ, where she earned All-State basketball honors and was inducted in the school's Hall of Fame. She resides in Ellington, Conn.

Questions and Answers with Chris Dailey

Q: Other than the winning tradition the UConn women's basketball program enjoys, what are some of the other selling points you make potential players aware of during the recruiting process?
A: "I think the biggest selling point is the people. I am a firm believer that the people make the program. I also feel like we have a tremendous balance between academics and athletics. We have created an environment where our players can do really well both academically and compete at the highest level athletically for national championships on the basketball court. I think we have proven that doing well in both areas are not mutually exclusive and that you can be very successful in the classroom and be the best at what you do on the court. I think that balance is what has allowed our players to be successful as student-athletes at UConn and beyond."

Q: What are the first impressions of recruits when they step on the campus for the first time?
A: "They like the size and feel like it's a quintessential college campus in terms of the environment. It's big enough to offer 100 majors but its small enough so you don't feel like just a number. I really feel like it is the best of both worlds. It's definitely a college environment and I know our players enjoy that."

Q: What do you look for in a student-athlete that makes you feel like they would be a good fit for the Connecticut women's basketball program?
A: "Due to the way recruiting is set up the first thing you see is the players skill level on the basketball court so you begin by watching their athletic ability and basketball skills. We also pay close attention to the way they interact with their teammates and coaches as well as how they handle adversity and success during games. Then you get to talking to their teammates, coaches, teachers and you find out a lot about the student-athlete as a person. We use all this to try to get a total picture to determine if they are a good fit for our program."

Q: What are some of you favorite moments during your first 18 years at the University of Connecticut?
A: "I think the first time you do anything it always stands out. The first time we beat Villanova at the Field House was an outstanding moment for our program. The first time we won the BIG EAST Tournament, our first NCAA Tournament berth and obviously winning our first national championship was special. I think those firsts are moments that stand out from a basketball standpoint. After you do it the first time the feeling is different and I think that is what makes the first time you do something so special."

Q: You have had the opportunity over your career to see the progression of women's college basketball over the years, discuss some of the changes you have seen in the game over that time.
A: "Obviously the athletic ability of the players has improved dramatically. Now it's okay to be an athlete, which is a great thing for women because the opportunities are so much greater then when I was in college. When I was in school it was just starting to be accepted that women can be great athletes, but we were still viewed as jocks. We wouldn't even wear sweats around because we didn't want anyone to know we played basketball. We wanted to have a separate identity. It wasn't cool then to be an athlete but over the last 20 years more girls are playing, more girls have the opportunity to go to college and it's okay to be an athlete when you are on the court or on the field and be a women when you are off it. The growth that I have seen in the acceptance of the game, the attendance, the opportunities for women both during and after college are just tremendous. We just didn't have that back then. So many women who were very talented 10 years ago just didn't have the same opportunities that today's players have. The exciting thing is that today's players are providing another foundation for future women-athletes and the sky is the limit in what they will be able to do. That is very exciting."

Assistant Coach Tonya Cardoza

TONYA CARDOZA
10th SEASON
Assistant Coach

In her 10th year as assistant coach is Tonya Cardoza, a former Kodak Honorable Mention All-American at the University of Virginia.

Since arriving at Connecticut, for the start of the 1994-95 season, Cardoza has helped lead the Huskies to an 309-18 record over the last nine years. The team has captured all four of its national championship under Cardoza's leadership, plus six trips to the NCAA Final Four. In BIG EAST play, the team has won eight consecutive conference championships and nine regular season titles.

Upon graduation from Virginia in 1991 with a degree in anthropology, Cardoza played professional basketball in Segovia, Spain for several months in 1992. At Virginia, she was a four-year letterwinner and helped lead the Cavaliers to four consecutive NCAA National Tournament appearances. In 1991, Cardoza led Virginia to a 61-55 victory over UConn in the NCAA Tournament Final Four semifinals with team-highs of 16 points and three steals. Virginia then lost to Tennessee in the NCAA Championship game, 70-67, in overtime.

As a senior in 1990-91, Tonya led Virginia in scoring (15.5 ppg) and tied with Dawn Staley for the rebounding lead (6.1 rpg) while earning the following honors: Kodak Honorable Mention All-America; Kodak First Team All-District III; First Team All-Atlantic Coast Conference; NCAA Final Four All-Tournament Team; and NCAA Regional All-Tournament Team. She also was a First Team All-ACC pick in 1988-89. She played 121 games in her Cavalier career, and upon graduation ranked as follows in the UVA career record book: No. 2, blocks (110); No. 3, steals (375); No. 6, points (1,622); and No. 7, rebounds (667).

Cardoza, a native of Roxbury, Mass., was an All-America and All-State basketball performer at Boston English High School. In 1997, she was inducted into the Boston English Hall of Fame, only the second woman to receive that honor.

Assistant Coach Jamelle Elliott

JAMELLE ELLIOTT
7th SEASON
Assistant Coach

Jamelle Elliott, a 1996 UConn graduate and a key member of Connecticut's 1995 NCAA National Championship (35-0) team, is in her seventh season as an assistant coach at her alma mater.

Building on her success as a player for the Huskies, Elliott has helped guide UConn to a 207-13 record in her six years as an assistant coach at Connecticut. The team has earned four consecutive NCAA Final Four trips and captured three national titles. In conference action, the team has won the BIG EAST regular season title for the past six seasons, taking five tournament championships.

Elliott, a four-year letterwinner, helped build the nationally-ranked UConn team and finished her career No. 2 in career rebounding (1,054), No. 5 in BIG EAST career rebounding (558) and No. 11 in UConn career scoring (1,387). Elliott was also only the second player in UConn history to surpass the 1,000 career point and 1,000 career rebound milestone. She is currently tied for fifth in the UConn career record books for games played with 135, never missing a single game in her four collegiate years. In her four years as a player, UConn posted an overall record of 117-18.

After graduating from Connecticut with a degree in business administration, Elliott went on to earn her graduate degree in sports management at UConn in 1997.

In her senior year, she was honored by the UConn Club as its "Outstanding Senior Athlete". She was also named the Most Outstanding Player at the Hartford Courant Connecticut Classic and was a member of the 1995 NCAA Mideast Regional All-Tournament Team.

Elliott, a native of Washington, D.C., was named to the Washington Post All-Metro Team as well as being named Scholar-Athlete at H.D. Woodson High School.

THE ROAD TO THE FINAL FOUR

The University of Connecticut defeated Tennessee, the No. 1 seed in the Mideast Region, 73-68, in the championship game at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta, on April 8, 2003, behind 28 points from junior Diana Taurasi and 17 points from freshman Ann Strother. Taurasi led the Huskies to their fourth National Championship. The Huskies faced Texas, the #2 seed from the West, on Sunday, April 6, at the Georgia Dome in a Final Four Semifinal game and defeated the Longhorns, 71-69, in dramatic fashion. Junior Maria Conlon hit two free throws with 36 seconds left to seal the win for the Huskies. Taurasi had 26 points and sophomore Jessica Moore added 13 points in the win. In East Regional action, UConn defeated the #2 seed Purdue, 74-63, in the East Regional Championship game to earn a Final Four bid. Taurasi led all scorers with 21 points and grabbed six rebounds, while Moore and Conlon each finished with 12 points apiece. In the East Region Semifinals, the Huskies defeated BIG EAST foe Boston College, 70-49, led by 26 points from Taurasi and 17 from Moore. The Huskies defeated first and second round foes, Boston University (91-44) and TCU (81-66), respectively, in Gampel Pavilion to advance to the East Regionals. Taurasi combined for 56 points in the two games, including a career-high 35 points versus TCU.

UCONN IN THE FINAL FOUR

It was Connecticut's seventh Final Four appearance in 2002-03 and its fourth straight since UConn captured the 2000 National Championship. UConn is 8-3 overall in the Final Four, and 4-0 in the NCAA Championship game. The Huskies tie the record for most consecutive Final Four appearances set by Tennessee (1995-1998) and LaTech (1987-90) with four straight trips to the Final Four. Connecticut has won four titles overall (1995, 2000, 2002, 2003) and for the third time has returned to the Final Four the following year to defend its title. This was the first year Connecticut successfully defended its national title. In both 1996 and 2001, the Huskies lost in the National Semifinals to Tennessee (88-83 OT, 3/29/96) and Notre Dame (90-75, 3/30/01).

UCONN AND THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

UConn captured the 2003 title as an at-large team earning its first at-large berth into the NCAA Tournament since the 1992-93 season. Previously, the Huskies had earned nine straight automatic bids by virtue of the BIG EAST Tournament Championship title. Overall, this was UConn's 15th appearance in the tournament where the Huskies boast a 47-11 (.810) overall record and have earned eight previous No. 1 seeds. UConn has been an at-large team only three other times in its NCAA history, 1990, 1992, 1993. UConn's previous best finish as an at-large team was the 1992 NCAA Second Round. The Huskies are 40-5 (.888) as a No. 1 seed. UConn is 28-5 all-time in the East Region.

IN THE DANCE
UConn is 47-11 (.810) in NCAA play, all under head coach Geno Auriemma. The Huskies have won 10 consecutive first round games: Boston University (2003), St. Francis (2002), Long Island (2001), Hampton (2000), St. Francis (1999), Fairfield (1998), Lehigh (1997), Howard (1996), Maine (1995) and Brown (1994). Overall, UConn possesses an 11-2 record in the first round. After the first round, the Huskies are 11-2 in the second round, 10-1 in the "Sweet Sixteen", 7-3 in the "Elite Eight" and 5-3 in the "Final Four." UConn also owns a spotless 4-0 mark in the National Championship game, earning titles in 1995, 2000, 2002, and 2003 as the defending National Champions.

AS A NO. 1 SEED
This year's No. 1 seed was the ninth in UConn's history. When a No. 1 seed, UConn is 40-5 (.888) with four National Championships and five Final Four appearances (The Huskies were a #3 seed in the 1991 Final Four). The Huskies are also a perfect 20-0 in Harry A. Gampel Pavilion as a No. 1 seed. UConn's lowest seed was No. 8 in the East Region of the 1989 NCAA Tournament, UConn's first NCAA Appearance.

IN THE EAST REGION...
For the 10th time, UConn found itself in the East bracket. All-time, UConn sports a 28-5 record in the East. In its first appearance in the East, the Huskies lost to LaSalle, 72-63, in the first round in 1989. UConn made its fifth final four appearance and has won two national championships when playing in the East Region. The Huskies last appeared in the East in 2001, when they won all four games in the region, before falling to Notre Dame in the National Semifinals.

SECOND IN CHAMPIONSHIPS
UConn head coach Geno Auriemma has led the Huskies to four National Championships which is second only to Tennessee's Pat Summitt, who has six.

SEVEN FINAL FOURS FOR GENO
UConn head coach Geno Auriemma has led the Huskies to their seventh Final Four, placing him third all-time among coaches. Pat Summitt has been to 14 Final Fours and Leon Barmore (LaTech) has made nine trips.

ANOTHER HUSKY MILESTONE
Head coach Geno Auriemma captured his 500th career win and coached his 600th career game during the Final Four. His record stands at 501-99 (.835) overall.

BEST ACTIVE WINNING %
With a win over Pat Summitt in the 2003 title game, head coach Geno Auriemma passed Tennessee head coach Pat Summitt for the best winning percentage by an active Division I coach in NCAA history. Auriemma has a lifetime winning percentage of .835 (501-99) while Summitt now stands at .834 (821-163).

NCAA TOURNEY WINNING %
Geno Auriemma has led the Huskies to a 47-11 mark in NCAA Tournament play, a winning percentage of .810, No. 2 in NCAA history. Pat Summitt is 80-16 (.833).

FINAL FOUR WINNING %
Geno Auriemma is 8-3 in Final Four games, a .727 winning percentage, good for No. 2 all-time. Linda Sharp of USC was 5-1 (.833) at the Final Four. Pat Summitt is No. 3 at 16-8 (.666). Auriemma's eight Final Four wins are second to Summitt. UConn's 4-0 record in the Championship game is the best mark ever by any team with a minimum of three games played.

THE COACH
The head coach of Connecticut, in his 18th season with the Huskies, is Geno Auriemma. Auriemma captured the 2003 National Championship, his fourth overall, with a career record of 501-99 (.835) in 18 seasons of collegiate coaching. He was named the BIG EAST 2002-03 Coach of the Year, the 2003 USBWA Coach of the Year and the 2003 Associated Press Coach of the Year. Auriemma has led the Huskies to four National Championships and has earned five National Coach of the Year honors.

HUSKY ALL-TOURNEY PICKS
UConn has had 13 all-time selections to the NCAA Final Four All-Tournament team, with four players earning Most Outstanding Player honors, Taurasi in 2003, Rebecca Lobo in 1995, Shea Ralph in 2000 and Swin Cash in 2002. Sue Bird and Asjha Jones are the only two Huskies to earn recognition two times, both gaining a spot in 2000 and 2002. Ann Strother was UConn's first freshman ever named to the NCAA Final Four All-Tournament. UConn also has two assistant coaches who were Final Four All-Tournament team members, Jamelle Elliott at UConn in 1995 and Tonya Cardoza at Virginia in 1991.

"FRIENDLY" GAMPEL
Including the TCU game, for the past nine seasons, the Huskies boast a record of 152-3 (.979) in Gampel Pavilion (19-0 in 1993-94, 18-0 in 1994-95, 18-1 in 1995-96, 17-0 in 1996-97, 16-0 in 1997-98, 12-1 in 1998-99, 15-1 in 1999-00, 14-0 in 2000-01 and 14-0 in 2001-02). Including the TCU game, the Huskies have had 74-straight sellouts in Gampel dating back to an 82-69 win over Rutgers on Dec. 31, 1997.

Maria Conlon

HOME SWEET HOME
When playing within the friendly confines of the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion, the Huskies are 24-2

Jessica Moore

(.916) during the NCAA Tournament. UConn's last NCAA loss in Gampel Pavilion came in the first round of the 1993 tournament when it lost to Louisville, 74-71.

NCAA HALFTIME SCORE

UConn's second round game versus TCU found the Huskies on unfamiliar ground as UConn was down by two points, 35-33, at halftime. The last time the Huskies were trailing at the half in tournament play was in the second round of the 1999 tournament when top-seeded Connecticut trailed #8 Xavier, 40-36. UConn came back and won the game after then-freshman Tamika Williams (02) converted two free throws in the final seconds for an 86-84 victory.

NCAA QUICK BITES

Connecticut was the first team (men or women) to have won a championship without a senior on its roster... UConn's margin of victory in 2003 NCAA Tournament games was 16.5 points... Diana Taurasi scored 20+ points in all six NCAA Tourney games... Taurasi scored the second most points in a single UConn NCAA Tournament game with 35 points versus TCU. Kerry Bascom (91) scored 39 points versus Toledo in UConn's first-ever NCAA Tournament win in 1991 (Dee Kantner was an official in both games)... Since the run to UConn's 2000 title, the Huskies are 22-1 overall in NCAA play and in their 22 wins have outscored opponents by an average of 25.4 points... The BIG EAST had seven teams receiving bids into the 2003 NCAA Tournament, the most ever in the league's history... The BIG EAST is the first conference to have won four consecutive national championships.

THE NCAA EXPERIENCE

The Huskies returned only one player from the 2002 NCAA Championship Team who had significant NCAA playing time. For her career, Diana Taurasi averages 32.2 minutes per game, 18.2 points per game, 4.6 assists per game and 5.3 rebounds per game in 17 games of NCAA postseason play. Behind Taurasi, Maria Conlon has the most minutes averaging 19.6 minutes per game in 16 NCAA games. Of the returning players, Moore has the second highest postseason scoring average at 7.3 ppg.

TAURASI BREAKS OUT

Taurasi looked to bring her "A" game to the NCAA Tournament and did just that. Taurasi led all Final Four players in scoring averaging 26.2 points per game. Although she saw her scoring average drop throughout the season, Taurasi is still the team leader. As her points per game dropped, Taurasi's teammates picked up the slack as UConn finished with four players averaging double-figures. In 17 total NCAA Tournament games, Taurasi averages 18.2 points, 5.3 rebounds and 4.6 assists per game, while leading UConn to the Final Four in each of her three seasons, including two National Championships.

FRESHMEN OFF AND RUNNING

The three biggest factors that helped determine the Huskies' success this season were named Ann Strother, Barbara Turner and Willnett Crockett. All three played in their first NCAA Tournament and all three were instrumental in UConn's championship title. Strother was named to the Final Four All-Tournament team for her outstanding play in the Final Four. She had 17 points in the title game. Turner opened the NCAA first round posting her second career double-double (15 pts., 10 rebs.) and was named to the East Regional All-Tournament team after scoring 21 points and grabbing eight rebounds, combined. And finally, Crockett averaged five rebounds in tourney play, including 10 rebounds and nine points versus Texas.

IRON ANN

UConn freshman Ann Strother played 1,196 total minutes on the season, more than All-American Diana Taurasi (1,181), and is one of only two Huskies to have started in all 38 games.

HUSKIES LIKE THE SPOTLIGHT

UConn had 11 national television appearances this season with five on ESPN and ESPN2 and one on CBS. UConn was 10-1 on national TV and was 4-0 versus top 5 teams. All 63 games of the NCAA Tournament were being televised on either ESPN or ESPN2. On national TV games, Taurasi is averaging 20.1 ppg, 6.2 rpg and 4.0 apg. UConn's three freshmen combined for 24.8 points per game with Turner leading the way at 10.0 points per game. Turner has made her only four career starts on national TV and is averaging 12.6 points per game in career starts.

THE ELUSIVE DOUBLE-DOUBLE

Barbara Turner notched her second career double-double versus Boston University with 15 points and 10 rebounds and Ashley Battle notched her third of the season versus TCU with 11 rebounds and 16 points. Diana Taurasi and Battle led the team with three apiece. Strother and Turner have two double-doubles, while Jessica Moore and Willnett Crockett have each had one. Overall, the Huskies had 12 double-doubles on the year. In 2001-02, Swin Cash (02) ended the season with a total of 15 total double-doubles.

REGULAR SEASON NUMBERS

UConn boasts an overall record of 259-76 (.773) in regular season BIG EAST play. During UConn's run of 10 consecutive BIG EAST regular season titles, the Huskies own a sterling 167-5 (.977) record. The Huskies notched their fifth undefeated season in league play in 2002-03 (18-0, 1994-95; 18-0, 1996-97; 16-0, 1999-2000; 16-0, 2001-2002; 16-0, 2002-03), the most of any other team in the league. UConn also holds the record for most consecutive winning seasons in league play. Since 1986, the Huskies have been over .500 for the past 17-straight seasons. The next closest is Notre Dame, who has posted eight winning seasons in a row from 1995-2003.

Ann Strother

ALL-TIME VERSUS THE RANKED
Connecticut has an all-time record of 88-32 versus Top 25 AP ranked teams. Since UConn's first national championship in 1994-95, the Huskies are 72-13 overall versus the AP's Top 25. Versus the AP's Top 10, UConn is 44-20 overall and 34-11 in the past 10 years. This season, Connecticut is 9-1 versus Top 25 and is 5-0 versus the Top 10.

CONSISTENT HUSKIES
UConn capped its 10th consecutive conference season in which it lost no more than one game, marking the 12th such season overall. Over the ten-season stretch, Geno Auriemma has guided the Huskies to a league regular season record of 167-5 (.977), with none of those losses coming at home.

30-POINT GAME
Diana Taurasi had her second game of the season scoring 30+ points with a career-high 35 versus TCU. She had 30 points versus Oklahoma at the Wahine Classic. The last time a UConn player scored 30 or more was Taurasi when she tallied her career-high of 32 versus Tennessee in an 86-72 win on January 5, in Knoxville. Prior to Taurasi's performances, Shea Ralph had been UConn's last 30-point scorer when she tallied 30 against St. John's in 1999. No member of UConn's 2002 senior class ever recorded 30 points. Swin Cash was closest with 29 points versus Old Dominion on Dec. 29, 2001.

DEFENSE WINS GAMES...
Although UConn's offense isn't quite as potent as last season's (87.0 ppg in 2001-02/74.8 ppg this season), the Husky defense is a major point of contention. UConn's stifling defense limited opponents to just 53.5 points per game which hovered all season around last year's average of 51.6 points per game, despite four new freshmen in the mix. UConn finished second in the nation in field goal percentage defense (.330) and third in scoring defense (53.5). The Huskies held Purdue to its lowest field goal percentage on the season (.319) in the East Region Championship.

SCORING 1,000
Diana Taurasi scored her 1,000th career point on a three-pointer in the first half of the Oklahoma game on Sun., Dec. 1. Taurasi became the 23rd player in UConn history to reach this mark. After a 28-point performance versus Tennessee in the national championship game, Taurasi currently has 1,588 points placing her seventh on Connecticut's all-time scoring list. Shea Ralph (01) is sixth with 1,678 career points. Taurasi was honored with a commemorative ball prior to the contest against USC.

Barbara Turner

CLEANING THE GLASS
The Huskies were led in rebounding by junior point guard Diana Taurasi with 6.1 rebounds per game followed by Jessica Moore at 5.9 rpg. The two were supported by a cast of three others who pulled down 4.5 or more rebounds per game to help UConn finish third in the nation with a +10.2 margin in rebounding. The Huskies average 42.0 rebounds per game.

REBOUNDING A STRENGTH
The Huskies were outrebounded only five times this season by opponents, including most recently Tennessee in the National Championship. The Lady Vols outrebounded the Huskies by their largest margin of the season with a 40-22 rebounding edge. Purdue grabbed 43 rebounds to UConn's 33.

A GIVING TEAM
The Huskies averaged 18.0 assists per game. Versus Georgetown (2/26), the Huskies had 24 assists on 34 field goals, versus Notre Dame (2/23), they had 23 assists on 30 field goals and versus then-No. 1 Duke, UConn had 22 assists on 27 field goals. The Huskies assist on baskets an average of 66.8% of the time (685 assists to 1025 field goals). According to the NCAA statistician's manual, the national average of assists to baskets is 55%. Leading the way is Diana Taurasi who averages 4.3 assists per game and is followed by Maria Conlon (3.4).

HUSKIES TRAIL AT HALF
Villanova, TCU and Texas did something that no other team had done to Connecticut in 86 games, lead at half time. Prior to the Villanova game, the last time the Huskies trailed at the intermission was Feb. 1, 2001 against Tennessee. UConn also went on to lose that game for the first loss in 70 straight games. Prior to TCU, the Huskies had not trailed at the half of an NCAA game since the second round of the 1999 tournament when top-seeded Connecticut trailed #8 Xavier, 40-36. UConn came back and won the game 86-84.

THE STREAKING HUSKIES
The Huskies boast the all-time Division I women's record with 70 consecutive wins. UConn surpassed LaTech's mark of 54 straight wins in 1981-82, with a 72-49 win over Georgetown on Saturday, Jan. 18, in the Hartford Civic Center. The Huskies streak ended on March 11, 2003 with a loss to Villanova at the BIG EAST Tournament finals.

THE HOME STREAKS
The Huskies end the 2002-03 season having won 63-straight overall home games since a 72-71 loss to Tennessee at Gampel Pavilion on February 2, 2000, a stretch which includes 40 contests at Gampel Pavilion and 22 in a row at the Hartford Civic Center. UConn's current streak of 63 ranks fourth all-time (passed 62- LaTech, 1982-86) with Tennessee leading the way with a 69-game home win streak (1990-1996) . UConn's previous longest home win streak of 54 started with a win over Rutgers on Jan. 24, 1996, and ended with a loss against Tennessee on Jan. 10, 1999, and is now seventh all-time. UConn also currently has separate win streaks of 41 games in Gampel Pavilion and 32 consecutive wins in the Hartford Civic Center (dating back to a 62-47 loss to St. John's on Feb. 22, 1986.)

ATTRACTING A CROWD
UConn draws a crowd wherever it goes. In the East Regionals, the Huskies helped Dayton to the third highest attendance at an East Regional with 18,055 for the two days... For the 10th away game this season, the Huskies helped its opponent to a record-high attendance when Providence saw 2,620 fans in Alumni Hall. The Huskies are responsible for the first-ever women's sellout in Cameron Indoor Arena of 9,314. Recently, the Huskies soldout Conte Forum in Chestnut Hill, MA, drawing a mixed crowd of 8,606. UConn also helped Pittsburgh to its first-ever women's basketball sellout in the Petersen Events Center. The sellout of 12,632 was the largest crowd to witness a women's game in the history of the city of Pittsburgh. UConn's game versus Holy Cross at the Worcester Centrum set a new attendance mark with 3,823 fans, while UConn also set back-to-back attendance records in South Florida (3,702) and Florida State (3,011). UConn's BIG EAST game at Seton Hall was Seton Hall's first sellout (2,600) since 1995 when Connecticut defeated the Pirates in the BIG EAST Championship game. The Huskies also drew a record-high 4,195 fans to Alumni Hall in Jamaica, NY, to set a new attendance mark at St. John's.

Ashley Battle

QUICK BITES

Purdue's 20-4 run versus the Huskies in the second half was the second highest run against UConn this season behind Duke's 30-11 run in the second half of the UConn/Duke game in Durham... Versus TCU, Taurasi scored 10 points in an 18-2 UConn run to start the second half and give UConn the win... Versus TCU, both Battle and Moore set new personal NCAA tournament highs in points and rebounds... Versus TCU, Taurasi scored a career-high 35 points, surpassing her previous career-high of 32 set versus Tennessee... Versus BU, for the third time this season, every active player on UConn's roster scored in the game...Versus BU, Ann Strother attempted a career-high 10 three-pointers...Versus BU, Willnett Crockett fouled out for the second time this season and the sixth time overall for a Husky...UConn's 91 points versus BU were the most since the Huskies had 97 versus Georgetown (2/26) and second most since 109 points versus Pepperdine on 12/20...UConn's 47-point victory over BU was its largest margin since a 109-48 win over Pepperdine on 12/20...UConn held an opponent under 50 for the 13th time this season after a 91-44 point win over BU...Versus Villanova (3/11/03), the Wildcat's 20-17 lead at intermission marked the first time the Huskies have trailed at halftime since February 1, 2001 versus Tennessee; a span of 86 games... VaTech shot 46.3% versus the Huskies, the highest percentage all season against UConn... UConn's 18 first half free throw attempts versus Seton Hall (3/9) equals a season high that was set back on Jan. 18, against Georgetown.

KEEPING THE MINUTES

For the season, the Huskies trailed a total of 146 minutes and 20 seconds through the 38 games out of a possible 1525 minutes. The Huskies did not trail at all in the National Championship game versus Tennessee. UConn trailed 20 minutes and 15 seconds in the loss against Villanova. In wins, UConn trailed TCU for a total of 19 minutes and 54 seconds, Tennessee (1/4/03) for a total of 18 minutes and 34 seconds and Texas a total of 17 minutes and 50 seconds, which individually was almost as much as they had trailed their first 11 opponents which was a total of 21 minutes and 27 seconds. The Huskies are currently trailing opponents for an average of three minutes and 52 seconds a game. During UConn's streak of 70 games, the Huskies trailed opponents a combined total of 138 minutes and 20 seconds (2:18:20) out of a total of 2,805 minutes (46:05:00) or two hours, 18 minutes and 20 seconds out of 46 hours and five minutes of basketball. In 2001-02, the Huskies played a total of 1,560 minutes in 39 games and trailed a total of 49 minutes and 59 seconds.

A REGULAR IN THE POLLS

The University of Connecticut women's basketball team has been a regular in the Top 25 for 188 consecutive weeks, including the first 19 weeks of the 2002-03 season. The Huskies finished No. 1 in both the AP and Coaches polls.

POLL-TOPPERS

With the Duke men topping the AP poll for two weeks from Jan. 6- Jan. 19, Duke became the second school in history to have both its men's and women's teams ranked No. 1, behind Connecticut, which has done it a total of three times. The first time was for one week, the week of 2/13/95, before the men lost, second was for six weeks in 1998-99— 11/30/98, 12/7/99, 12/14/99, 12/21/99, 12/28/99, 1/4/99 before the women lost to Tennessee on Jan. 10, and the third was the preseason poll of 1999-00— 11/9/99 before the men lost their opener.

TRAILING IN THE SECOND HALF

To start the second half versus Texas, UConn trailed for the fifth time in the second half of a game since 2001. The Huskies trailed most of the second half, but took the lead for good on a three-pointer by Taurasi with 2:12 left.

LISTING MORE HUSKY STREAKS

After UConn's win over TCU, the Huskies continued a 63-game winning streak at home (both Gampel and Civic Center) dating back to a 72-71 loss versus Tennessee on Feb. 2, 2000... UConn's win over Duke in Cameron Indoor Stadium broke the nation's second longest home win streak of 21 straight wins by Duke in Cameron... UConn is riding a 61-game regular season win streak since a 92-88 loss to Tennessee on February 1, 2001... UConn boasts a 101-game conference win streak at home...UConn's last home loss to a conference team was a 64-62 decision to Georgetown on February, 27, 1993... The Huskies have won 12-straight NCAA Tournament games... Including the TCU game, the Huskies have had 74-straight sellouts in Gampel dating back to an 82-69 win over Rutgers on Dec. 31, 1997.

STRONG BENCH

UConn's bench has outscored its 38 opponents 887-464. The Huskies' largest advantage came against St. John's when they out scored the Redstorms' bench 39-4. Most recently, the Huskies outscored the BU bench in first round NCAA action, 30-6. Freshman Barbara Turner led the Huskies off the bench averaging 10.0 points per game (started four NCAA Tournament games), with Ashley Battle and Willnett Crockett right behind her at 8.3 and 5.7 points, respectively. The Husky bench was outscored by opponent benches, however, 36-13, in the Final Four.

ESPN RATINGS

ESPN2's coverage of the women's college basketball game pitting No. 2 Connecticut at No. 1 Duke Saturday, February 1, averaged 1,226,000 household impressions and a 1.45 rating, making it the most-viewed regular season women's basketball game ever on ESPN or ESPN2 and the highest rated in 20 years (since ESPN's telecast of Tennessee vs. Louisiana Tech December 14, 1982, generated a 1.7 rating). In addition, the telecast was ESPN2's third most-watched college basketball game, including post season and men's action.

MISSING D.
Due to a reoccurring right ankle injury, Diana Taurasi sat out UConn's game versus South Florida. The Huskies had to make up for D's 19.4 points and 6.7 rebounds per game. Stepping up for UConn were freshman Barbara Turner and junior Maria Conlon who each scored nine points above their average entering the game. The Huskies also killed the larger team on the boards out rebounding the Bulls, 52-31 on the night. Five players finished with five or more boards with Ashley Battle, Ann Strother and Turner grabbing nine apiece. The game was Taurasi's first game missed since missing two games in 2000-01, also due to an ankle injury suffered versus Villanova on 2/18/01. Without Taurasi, the Huskies defeated West Virginia, 97-34, (2/20/01) and St. John's, 118-44, (2/23/01).

TAURASI RIPS THE WAVES
Diana Taurasi was unstoppable in her performance versus Pepperdine. The junior, who did not score a single point versus Pepperdine in her first meeting with the team in 2000, finished with 26 points, including 21 at the half. In fact, Taurasi scored more points in the first half than the entire Pepperdine team (20 first half points). At the 15:25 mark of the first half, Diana began a 14-3 scoring run of her own which lasted three minutes. In the span of 15:25-12:18, Taurasi had two three-point plays on drives to the hoop, hit two long-range three pointers, and had a runner in the lane for 14 points in three minutes.

YOUNG GUNS
The last time Connecticut had two freshmen in the starting lineup to open the season was in 1998 when Sue Bird and Swin Cash got the starting nod. Before suffering a stress fracture, Nicole Wolff started UConn's first 10 games alongside rookie Ann Strother. Barbara Turner and Strother finished the season as rookie starters in the NCAA Tournament. On Jan. 13, 1999, Auriemma had three rookies in his starting lineup versus Seton Hall: Tamika Williams, Asjha Jones and Keirsten Walters. UConn had not started three freshmen together in the 2002-03 season.

AURIEMMA HONORED
Prior to the Holy Cross game in Worcester, MA, UConn head coach Geno Auriemma was honored with the key to the city by Holy Cross head coach Bill Gibbons in recognition of the team's contributions to the sport of women's basketball in New England.

HAWAIIAN AIRLINES RAINBOW WAHINE CLASSIC
The UConn Huskies won their second Hawaiian Airlines Rainbow Wahine Classic on Sun., Dec. 1, by defeating Oklahoma 73-60. The Huskies beat Denver (85-29) and Hawaii (60-53) to advance to the championship game. Connecticut last won the Rainbow Wahine Classic in 1995 with a 65-48 win over Hawaii. Diana Taurasi and Ann Strother received all-tournament team honors at the Rainbow Wahine Classic. Taurasi also received MVP honors averaging 21.3 points, 7.0 rebounds and 5.3 assists, while shooting 52.1 percent from the field. Strother, during the three game stretch, averaged 10.3 points, 3.3 assists and 2.7 rebounds.

PRESEASON PICKS
Despite going wire-to-wire atop the national polls in 2001-02 and earning a national championship, picking UConn's fate for 2002-2003 seemed to be no easy task. Prognosticators had the Huskies ranked anywhere from as high as third to as low as 12th in the preseason. Here's a rundown of who had UConn where to start the season: ESPN Coaches Poll- 3rd; AP Poll- 4th; All-School Girl's Report- UConn 3rd; Athlon Magazine- UConn 8th; Basketball News- UConn 6th; Lindy's Magazine- UConn 4th; Street & Smith- UConn 12th; Women's Basketball News Service- UConn 5th; Slam Magazine- UConn 5th; GBall Mag.com- UConn 3rd. Seven of the eight media outlets picked Duke to win it all, while Lindy's went out on a limb and chose Tennessee as the preseason favorite.

WRIGHT STATE- THE BANNER DAY
The University of Connecticut women's basketball team added its third championship banner to the rafters when the Huskies unveiled the 2001-2002 NCAA Division I National Championship banner in Gampel Pavilion prior to their season opener versus Wright State on Nov. 22.

MORE 70- GAME STREAK TALK
The UConn women's basketball team's winning streak of 70-straight games was quite an accomplishment in this day and age of the women's game. Here is a list of other NCAA Division I and pro streaks that UConn is keeping good company with: Women's soccer- North Carolina, 92 games (1990-94); Men's College Basketball- UCLA, 88 straight wins (1971-74); College football- Oklahoma, 47 games (1953-57); College softball- Arizona (1996-97) 47 games; Women's volleyball- Penn State, 44 matches (1990); College baseball- Florida Atlantic (1999) and Texas (1977), 34 games; Men's soccer- Navy, 25 games (1964-65); NBA- Lakers, 33 games (1971-72); MLB- Chicago Cubs, 21 games (1935); NHL- Pittsburgh Penguins, 17 games (1993); NFL- Chicago Bears, 17 games (1933-34).

INSIDE THE NUMBERS DURING THE STREAK
From the field during the 70 games, UConn is 50.1 % (2095-4178), while opponents shoot just 32.2% (1300-4037). Behind the arc the Huskies are 38.3% (419-1093) and opponents are 33.1% (329-991).

STREAK MILESTONES
The University of Connecticut during the 70-game winning streak had some close games and some not so close games. The toughest victory for the Huskies was on Jan. 4, 2003, when it took overtime to beat Tennessee 63-62. The Huskies' largest margin of victory was against Pittsburgh (Jan. 2, 2002), when they won 112-43. UConn's 25th straight win came in a 92-40 victory over Seton Hall (Feb. 6, 200), while the 50th straight win was a 74-55 defeat against Florida State (Dec. 30, 2002). Other milestone victories are the 96-54 win over Boston College for the 2001-02 BIG EAST Tournament Championship, the 79-56 triumph over Tennessee in the 2002 Final Four and an 82-70 victory over Oklahoma for the 2002 National Championship. The game which clinched the new title was a 72-49 victory over Georgetown on Jan. 18, 2003, for UConn's 55th. UConn passed San Francisco's mark of 60-straight wins on Feb. 8, with an 83-75 win over Boston College to earn the second longest streak in Division I men's or women's history behind UCLA's 88. UConn's streak ended at 70 in the BIG EAST Championship versus Villanova on March 3, 2003.

FINAL FOUR-PEAT

With Connecticut's 2003 NCAA title, the BIG EAST became the first conference to win four straight NCAA titles – UConn 2000, Notre Dame 2001, Connecticut 2002 & 2003. The BIG EAST is the only conference to have than one team win the national women's championship in four consecutive years.

BIG EAST TAKES THREE TITLES

The BIG EAST became the first conference to win the men's and women's NCAA titles and the men's NIT Championship in the same year. The Syracuse men won their first national championship, the UConn women took home their fourth national title and St. John's won the NIT for the sixth time.

DOUBLE-DIPPING

The BIG EAST is only the second conference in NCAA basketball history to win the men's and women's national titles in the same year. The SEC has done it twice (1998 & 1996) with Kentucky on the men's side and Tennessee for the women.

TAURASI IN THE FINAL FOUR

After scoring 26 and 28 points in the national semifinal and championship games, UConn junior Diana Taurasi, the consensus National Player of the Year, was named the Final Four Most Outstanding Player. Her combined 54 points is the fourth highest Final Four scoring total in NCAA history. Taurasi also hit eight 3-point field goals in the two games to tie the Final Four record.

SWEET 16 x 4

This season marked the first time the league placed four teams in the Sweet 16. On two other occasions, the BIG EAST has placed three teams in the region semifinals.

NINE BIG EAST TEAMS IN POSTSEASON PLAY

For the first time in league history, the BIG EAST sent seven teams to the NCAA Championship. Only the BIG EAST and SEC were represented by seven in the field of 64. UConn, joined by Notre Dame, Boston College, Miami, Rutgers, Villanova and Virginia Tech all earned a berth to the Big Dance. Two additional teams played in the WNIT, Georgetown and Seton Hall.

Game Notes: Nicole Wolff scored 18 points in her collegiate debut to pace all five Husky starters in double figures as UConn began defense of its' third national championship with 85- 39 victory over Wright State... UConn started slowly trailing in the game's early moments before Ann Strother, also playing her first collegiate game, hit two free throws to put the Huskies up for good at 5-4. The decisive run in the opening 20 minutes was a 19-3 spurt giving UConn a 31-10 lead with 5:55 to play in the first half... The Huskies' hot shooting continued in the second half, as they finished shooting 57% (34 of 60) for the game...Wolff hit four of five three-pointers to lead the UConn scoring brigade... JessicaMoore and Strother each notched double-doubles, adding career-highs 13 and 11 rebounds to their scoring prowess. Taurasi had a game-high seven assists for UConn.

Game Notes: Diana Taurasi and freshman Ann Strother each scored 17 points as the UConn women's basketball team defeated top-ranked Duke 77-65 in the national limelight of sold-out Cameron Indoor Stadium... UConn fell behind 4-2 early on, but a Taurasi three gave UConn its first lead at 5-4 and sparked a 13-1 Husky run to take a 15-5 lead at the 14:30 mark... Duke would pull to within six points with 7:15 remaining in the half, but the Huskies would put the clamps on, holding Duke scoreless for the remainder of the first half... UConn came out quickly in the second half with an 8-0 run to take its largest lead of the game at 51-23... However, Duke would heat up and manage to climb back into the game with a 30-11 run over the next 12:50 and shrink the lead back to single digits at 62-53... Duke would creep to within six points at 71-65 with under one minute remaining, but Taurasi, Ashley Battle, Strother and Maria Conlon were clutch from the free-throw line combining to go eight-eight in the game's final minute.

Game Notes: Barbara Turner scored15 points and grabbed 11 rebounds, while Jessica Moore added 16 points and six rebounds to lead Connecticut to an 87-46 win over St. John's... The win was the 60th in a row for the Huskies dating back to last year, which continues their national collegiate Division I record and places them tied for second in NCAA men's and women's history... The Red Storm scored the first basket of the game for their only lead as UConn promptly went on a 10-0 run... The Huskies were never tested from there ashead coach Geno Auriemma substituted freely ... Willnett Crockett scored a career high 14 points... UConn's outscored the St. John's bench 39-4.

Game Notes: Diana Taurasi had 22 points and five rebounds, while freshman Barbara Turner added 18 points and nine rebounds, as Connecticut defeated Boston College, 83-75, at the Silvio O. Conte Forum in front of a sellout crowd of 8,606... The game was tight for the first three and half minutes, until the 17:35 mark, when the Huskies stepped it up and went on a 16-0 run. Turner added a spark off the bench, coming in and contributing six points of her own... The Eagles soon answered later in the first half and cut the Huskies lead down to 11, as they went on an 8-0 run with just under six minutes left to play... The second half saw plenty of action, as both teams played evenly for the first 15 minutes of the half... The Eagles slowly crept up to the Huskies, and tied the game 61-61, with 5:07 left on the clock... However, the tie was short lived as Taurasi converted on a three point play, and an Ashley Battle's steal led to a fast break lay up to put the Huskies up five at the 4:32 mark ... Boston College was unable to tie the score again, as Taurasi and Battle took over to finish off the win.

Game Notes: Barbara Turner scored 16 points to pace four teammates in double figures as Connecticut blew past Seton Hall 84-44 at the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion... Connecticut used pinpoint shooting and a stifling defense to earn the victory... The Huskies' shot 59% (30 of 51) from the field, second best on the season behind the 60% effort against Pepperdine on December 20... UConn scored the game's first basket and was never headed in the contest, leading by a 35-17 count at intermission... The hot-shooting Huskies shot a torrid 63% after halftime, making 17 of 27 attempts, paced by Turner, who scored 10 of her game-high 16 points after intermission... The Huskies put together a 28-4 run in the second half to end any hopes of a Seton Hall comeback... UConn's largest lead of the game was 45 (77-32).

Game Notes: Ashley Battle scored a career-high 17 points and had a career-high seven steals to lead Connecticut to a 97-57 defeat of the Georgetown Hoyas at McDonough Gym... Taurasi scored the first eight points for UConn to jump out to an early 8-3 lead... The Husky bench took over from there, with Turner's eight points and Battle's six steals helped Connecticut go on a 19-4 run to put the Hoyas away early at 27-7... The two teams played evenly through the first part of the second half, before UConn went on a 14-5 run for a 30 point lead at 75-45 with 7:59 remaining to play in the game ... Connecticut finished the game shooting 68 percent from the field and 53 percent from behind the arc ... UConn was very unselfish as 24 of their 34 field goals in the game were generated from assists... The Huskies out-rebounded their opponent for the 24th time and the UConn bench outscored their opponent for the 23rd time this season.

Game Notes: Connecticut clinched first place in the BIG EAST regular season after defeating Providence by a score of 70-52... The Huskies got off to a rather sluggish start in the first half, as they trailed the Friars for the first 12 minutes of play... The Huskies slowly cut the Friars lead, by the help of back to back three-pointers by Ann Strother and Stacy Marron bringing the Huskies to within one ,17-16 at the 9:18 mark... It wasn't until Maria Conlon connected on a fade away jump-shot in the paint to tie the score, 20-20 with 7:55 left to play in the first half... Two free throws from Diana Taurasi gave the Huskies their first lead of the game... The Huskies continued to rally and did not allow the Friars to score a field goal for a little over four minutes...The second half was more in UConn's favor. .. While the Friars did put up a good fight, closing the gap to one, 40-39, at the 10:12 mark, and 42-41 with 9:50 remaining, the Huskies would step it up and explode on a 22-2 run... Taurasi was the spark of the run, scoring 10 of her 12 points... The Huskies and the Friars were even underneath, as each team pulled down 35 rebounds.

Game Notes: Diana Taurasi led Connecticut to a 71-54 win over Virginia Tech in the semifinals of the BIG EAST Tournament at the Louis Brown Arena in Piscataway, NJ... The first half saw Virginia Tech and the Huskies play evenly for the first five minutes, until the Hokies put together a 15-4 run for a 25-18 lead... UConn would fight back to finish the half on a 13-4 run for a halftime lead of 31-29. Both teams began the same way as the first half as the game was back and forth until UConn went on an 18-5 run to extend to a 60-43 lead... During the run the Huskies got good hustle and two three point field goals out of Maria Conlon and two lay-ups by Taurasi... The Huskies continued their trend of beating up opponents on the glass as they out-rebounded the Hokies 36-21 on the night, including a game-high seven boards from Willnett Crockett.

Game Notes: Villanova's Trish Juhline scored 18 points and hit two clutch free-throws with 13 seconds left in the game, to lead the Wildcats to a 52-48, victory over Connecticut in the BIG EAST Tournament Final at the Louis Brown Athletic Center in Piscataway, NJ... Villanova looked to slow the pace of the game from the outset, on some possessions letting 15 seconds tick off the shot-clock before advancing the ball into the front-court... The strategy worked as 'Nova held the Husky offense to just 17 points in the first half. Villanova's 20-17 lead at intermission marked the first time the Huskies trailed at halftime since February 1, 2001; a span of 86 games... The Huskies stormed out of the gate in the second half and looked to be more in control of the game's tempo battle when they took a 25-23 lead on Ashley Battle's fast-break lay-up... Kate Dessart-Mager tied the contest with a mid-range jumper at the 13:50 mark but Villanova would make only one filed goal over the next 5:50 allowing UConn to mount a 12-2 run and take a seemingly insurmountable 36-27 lead... Villanova held UConn scoreless for the next 7:02... The dry-spell allowed Villanova to construct a 15-0 run and take a 42-36 advantage ... With Villanova holding its largest lead of the game at 45-38 with two minutes remaining... Villanova was clutch from the charity stripe, hitting seven of its eight free throws in the game's final 1:50 to seal it...Taurasi and Moore were both named to the All-Tournament team and each finished with 13 points.

Game Notes: Diana Taurasi poured in 21 points and dished out seven assists to lead the Connecticut past Boston University, 91-44, in the first round of the NCAA Division I women's basketball championship in Storrs, CT... UConn stormed out of the gate in its first game since March 11th, taking an early 10-2 lead at the 17:03 mark... Katie Terhune would hit a three to pull BU within five at 10-5, but the Terriers got no closer for the remainder as UConn mounted a 20-4 run over the next eight minutes to take a commanding 30-9 lead with 9:10 remaining in the first half... The second half was again dominated early by Connecticut as it jumped out to a 19-6 run over the first five minutes of the second half and remained in control throughout... The Terriers were out-matched on the boards as UConn out-rebounded BU 46-to-21 on the afternoon thanks in large part to Turner who snared ten.

Game Notes: Diana Taurasi notched 21 points to lead four Huskies in double figures as the Connecticut women's team defeated Purdue, 73-64, at the Dayton University Arena in Dayton Ohio... Purdue got off to a good start as Shereka Wright converted on an old-fashioned three-point play one minute into the contest, however, Purdue went ice-cold from the floor for the remainder of the half, missing its next 13 attempts from the field, and UConn took advantage by rattling off 17 consecutive points... Purdue heated up in the second half, hitting five of its first ten shots, but the Huskies were able to thwart a Boiler Maker come-back by answering each of Purdue's buckets with two points of their own, increasing its lead to 22 points with 8:20 left in the game... However, UConn would not hit another field goal the rest of the way and Purdue launched a 20-to-four run over the next 6:20 and pulled to within six points of the Huskies at the two minute mark, 66-60. The six point deficit was the smallest of the game since the 17:15 mark in the first half... UConn finished the game hitting 5-6 free throws in the final minute to preserve the win.

Head Coach Geno Auriemma earned his 500th career win led Connecticut into the finals of the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Championship with a 71-69 victory over the Texas at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta in front of sell-out crowd of 28,210 ... With tight defensive efforts and an evenly matched rebounding battle, the Longhorns fought hard and were able to tie the score 14-14 with just over 10 minutes left in the half ... Texas took their first lead of the half, 30-29 with 1:57 left on the clock ... Texas led 35-33 heading into the locker room ... Willnett Crockett added a tremendous spark off the bench down the stretch and was key in the final minutes, converting on a long one handed pass off the dribble from Taurasi, to bring the Huskies to within four, 64-60 ... With just 36 seconds left in the contest, Crockett then pulled down a key offensive rebound after Taurasi's two missed free throws and quickly called a time-out ... Maria Conlon knocked down one of her free throws to bring the Huskies to a 71-66 lead ... Moore finished with 13 points and six rebounds ... UConn grabbing 37 rebounds and Texas pulled down 35 ... UConn shot 45 percent from the field, while Texas shot 42 percent.

Game Notes: Diana Taurasi led all scorers with 28 points and the Connecticut women's basketball team never trailed en route to a 73-68 triumph over Tennessee in the championship game... Barbara Turner scored the game's first two points just fifteen seconds into the contest and Connecticut never trailed in the game... The Huskies took their largest lead of the half at the 15:20 mark, 14-7, thanks to a Jessica Moore bucket, but Tennessee would battle back to tie the score at 30 with 1:30 remaining in the half... Taurasi answered by draining a three-pointer with the shot clock running down at the :30 mark... With just 10 seconds left in the stanza, Maria Conlon stole the ball and started a fast-break capped off by a Willnett Crockett acrobatic lay-up with only two seconds left giving UConn a 35-30 advantage heading into the locker room... UConn started the second half, extending its 5-0 run to end the first half to a 17-4 run to take its largest lead of the game, 47-34, with 16:15 left in the season... Tennessee mounted a 10-3 run over the next 3:15 to shrink the Husky lead to six, 50-44... With 9:50 remaining, and the Huskies up, 55-49, Ann Strother buried her third three-pointer to spark a 12-5 UConn run over the next 4:05, allowing Connecticut to take a 67-54 lead with just 6:10 left, but the Huskies would not score for the next 2:30 and Tennessee used an 8-0 run to pull to within five, 67-62 at the 2:40 mark... Up by three, 71-68, with 21 seconds left, Strother hit two free-throws with 20 seconds remaining and Battle stole the ensuing inbounds pass and the Huskies held the ball successfully defending their title.

Huskies in the Pros

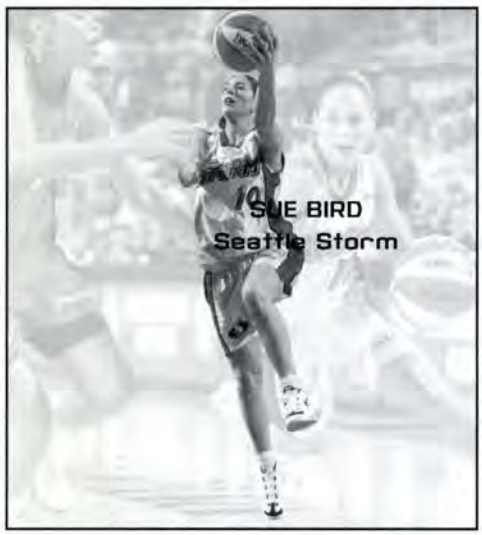
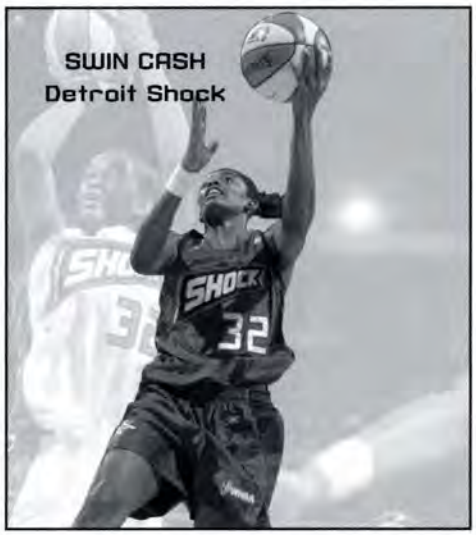
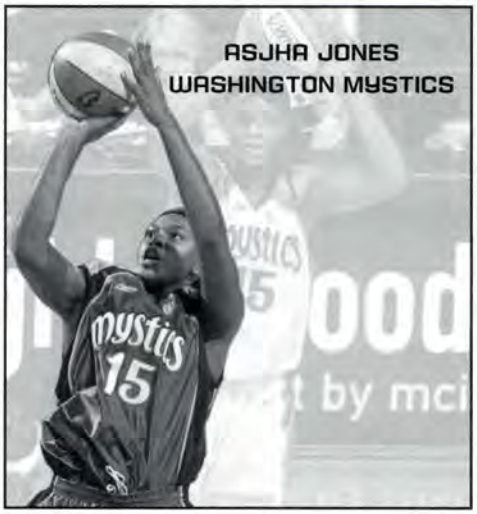
Svetlana Abrosimova was drafted seventh overall by the Minnesota Lynx in the 2001 WNBA Draft. In her first three seasons in the league, she averaged 11.7 points, 5.6 rebounds and 1.54 steals per game. During the 2003 season she ranked 20th in the WNBA with an average of 2.7 assists per game and ranked third on Minnesota in scoring (10.6 ppg) and second in rebounding (4.7 rpg).



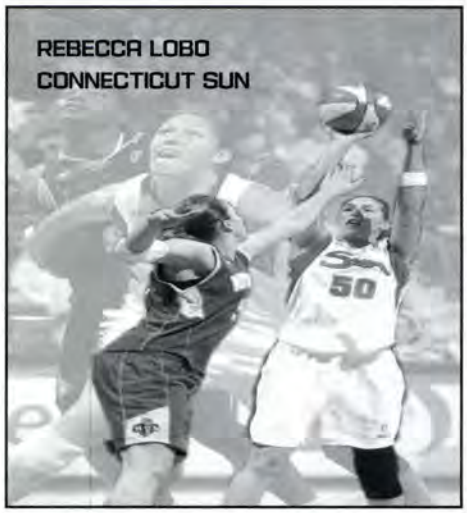
Sue Bird was UConn's first No. 1 draft pick when she was selected by the Seattle Storm in 2002. In her rookie campaign, Bird was runner-up for the Rookie of the Year award after finishing first in the league in free throw percentage (.911) and second in assists per game (6.0). She has been a two-year starter for the West in the WNBA All-Star game and led the team to its first postseason appearance in 2002.



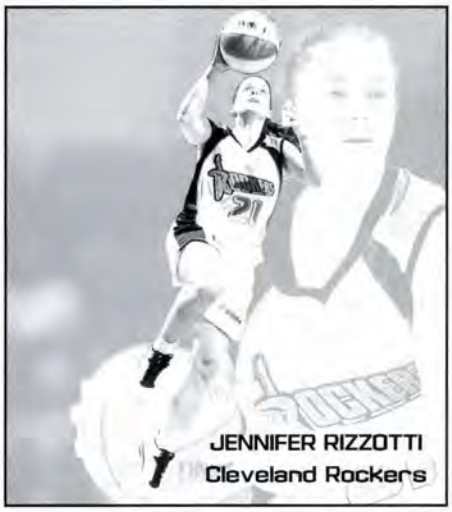
Swin Cash was selected by the Detroit Shock as the second pick overall of the 2002 WNBA draft. In her second season she helped guide the Shock to their first ever WNBA title while averaging a team-best 16.6 ppg, which ranked seventh overall among WNBA leaders. Also ranked among league leaders in rebounds (5.80 pg) and steals (1.30).



Asjha Jones was selected fourth overall in the 2002 WNBA Draft by the Washington Mystics. She averaged 6.5 points per game, 2.8 rebounds per game and made five starts in her rookie season. Jones helped the Washington Mystics reach the WNBA Eastern Conference Finals. In her second campaign, she registered 8.5 points and 4.0 rebounds per game.



Rebecca Lobo was one of the WNBA original players assigned to the New York Liberty in 1997. She sat out the 1999 and 2000 seasons with a torn ACL in her left knee. After spending five years with the Liberty, she was traded to the Houston Comets in 2002. She posted career averages of 6.7 points and 4.1 rebounds per game over six seasons with the New York Liberty, Houston Comets and Connecticut Sun. Lobo announced her retirement during the summer of 2003.



Jennifer Rizzotti was a two-year member of the four-time WNBA Champions, the Houston Comets, before being traded to the Cleveland Rockers at the start of the 2001 season. She averaged a career high 6.8 points per game and 3.3 assists per game during the 2002 season. In September of 1999, she was named the head women's basketball coach at the University of Hartford.

Huskies in the Pros

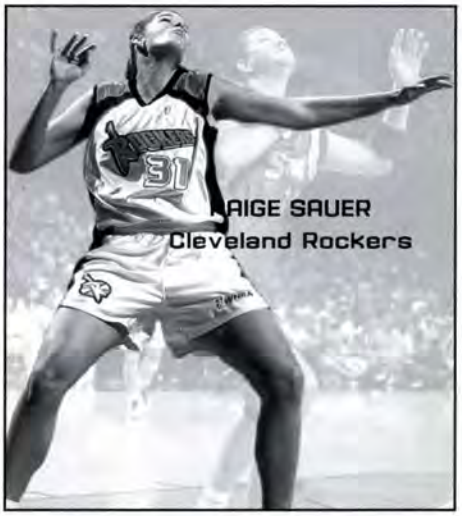
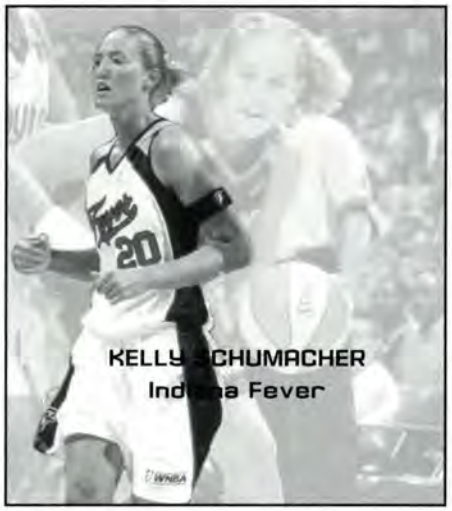
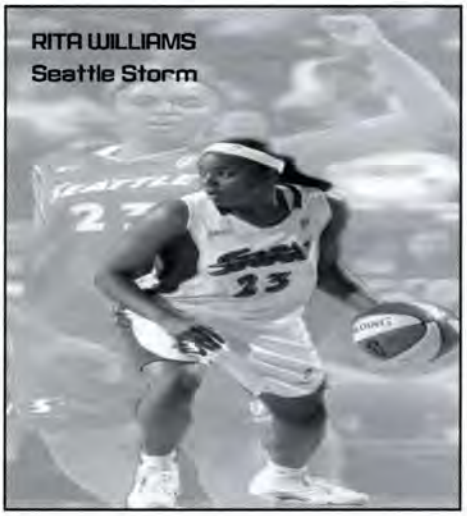
Nykesha Sales was assigned to the Orlando Miracle in September of 1998 and finished her fourth season before moving on to the Connecticut Sun in 2003. She was named to the WNBA All-Star East team for the fifth straight season and led the Sun in scoring with 16.1 ppg. Sales has averaged 14.1 points per game over her five-year career. She was named an alternate for the 2000 U.S. Olympic Team.



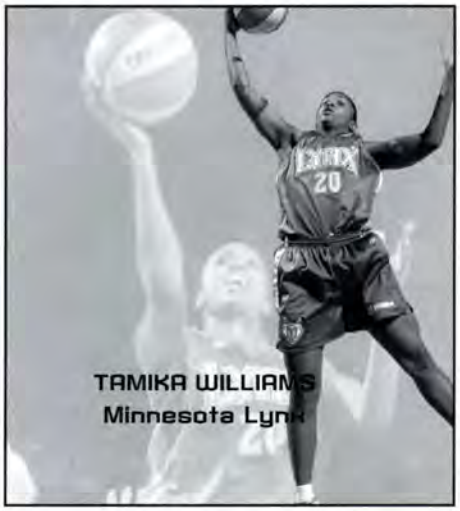
Paige Sauer started her rookie season in the WNBA in 2000 with the Los Angeles Sparks, but was picked up midway through the 2001 season by the Cleveland Rockers. The 6-5 center was released from the Rockers in 2002 and is currently playing professionally overseas.



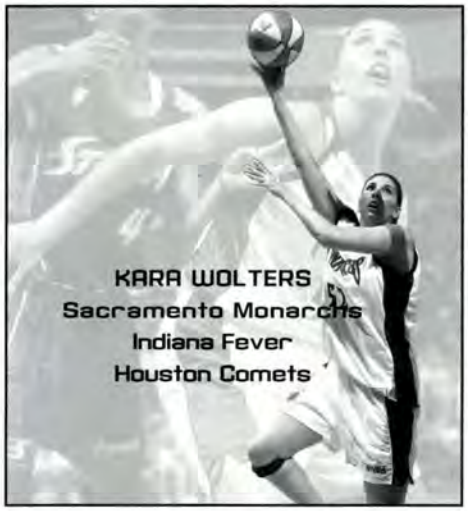
Kelly Schumacher was drafted 17th overall by the Indiana Fever in the first round of the 2001 WNBA Draft. The 6-4 center has averaged 4.4 points per game and 0.82 blocks per game in her three-year career. She helped the Fever to the 2002 WNBA Playoffs and averaged 10.7 points per game in three playoff games.



Rita Williams was drafted by the Washington Mystics in the second round of the 1998 WNBA Draft where she played for two seasons (1998-99) before she was picked up in the 1999 expansion draft by the Indiana Fever. She was a 2001 All-Star with the Fever and in 2002 was traded midseason to Houston, playing the last nine games of the season with the Comets. The 5-6 guard finished her sixth season in the WNBA and is averaging 6.4 points 1.49 steals and 2.2 assists per game.



Tamika Williams was drafted by the Minnesota Lynx as the sixth overall pick in the 2002 WNBA Draft. In her first season, she started all 31 games for the Lynx and led the team in rebounding (7.4 rpg) while adding 10.1 points per game. She finished second in the WNBA in field goal percentage (.561) and offensive rebounds (96.0).



Kara Wolters began her career in the WNBA with the 1999 WNBA Champion Houston Comets, before being picked up by the Indiana Fever during the 1999 expansion draft. At the start of the 2001 season, the 6-7 center was acquired by the Sacramento Monarchs. Through five seasons in the WNBA, she is averaging 6.5 points and 3.2 rebounds per game. Wolters was named a member of the 2000 U.S. Olympic Team which captured the gold medal in Sydney, Australia.

Dr. Leigh Curl was inducted into the GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame on June 10, 1998.

Curl, a two-time Academic All-America choice, was a basketball standout at the University of Connecticut (1981-1985). Curl, who scored 1,388 points in her career, was only the third woman in Connecticut history to score 1,000 points and is currently No. 12 at UConn in career points. The four-year starter and two-year captain was also Summa Cum Laude in biology and the valedictorian of her graduating class at UConn. Curl was also the 1985 BIG EAST Scholar-Athlete and the UConn Women's Basketball Scholar-Athlete.

One Professor at Connecticut saw her potential and thought she was bound for bigger and better things - Dr. Ted Taigen. Curl did her honors thesis in Taigen's lab and there he noticed her talent and aptitude in biology. Taigen talked her into applying to medical school.

Curl was accepted into Johns Hopkins School of Medicine where she got her degree while volunteering as a team physician for USA Basketball and the New York City public schools recreation program.

Currently the head team physician for the 2001 NFL Super Bowl Champions Baltimore Ravens, Curl is only the sixth woman ever to be inducted into the Hall of Fame. The other 1998 inductees were: Bernie Kosar (Miami), Jack Mildren (Oklahoma), Jack Sikma (Illinois Wesleyan) and Marv Levy (Coe College).

Harry A. Gampel Pavilion

Harry A. Gampel Pavilion
(opened January 31, 1990)

Overall: 195-15 (.929)
vs. BIG EAST: 113-7 (.942)
vs. Non-conference: 82-8 (.911)

Connecticut Basketball, which during the past 18 years under head coach Geno Auriemma has created a nationally-regarded winning tradition, features one of the best on-campus home court facilities in all of college basketball—the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion.

A spacious, state-of-the-art building, the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion opened in January of 1990 and totals more than 171,000 square feet in the domed area while an additional 39,000 square feet comprise the attached Wolff-Zackin Natatorium (including a 50-meter Olympic size swimming pool).

The complex was a $28 million project and measures 320 feet in diameter in the circular domed arena area. The brilliant aluminum dome of the Gampel Pavilion towers more than 130 feet in the air from ground level.

The main arena includes two large four-color scoreboards with complete video and graphic message capability. The "Alumni Court" main arena floor is constructed with the latest version of spring aire wood.

During the summer of 1996, the original capacity of Gampel Pavilion (8,241) was increased with additional seating placed above each of the four entrance quadrants of the structure. That placed the capacity at 10,027, however, renovations to the lower level endzones during the summer and fall of 2002 have added another 140 seats. The current capacity of Gampel Pavilion is 10,167, making the building the largest on-campus basketball facility in New England.

The Connecticut women's basketball program is totally housed in the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion and was renovated in the summer and fall of 2002.

The Huskies' newly renovated team room includes a spacious varsity locker room with wood grain "pro style" individual lockers as well as an adjoining team lounge and audio-visual area, complete with a study area, large screen television, satellite dish hook-up for scouting and game review, and a stereo sound system.

The Connecticut basketball staff is housed in a suite of offices located adjacent to the team room and directly off the main arena court.

Also included on the arena level of the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion is a unique strength, conditioning and weight training area for the women's basketball program. Supervising that area is Jerry Martin, the women's basketball strength and conditioning coordinator.

Rounding out the arena level of the Gampel Pavilion are individual areas for Connecticut's Division of Athletic Sports Medicine and Athletic Performance staff, headed by Director of Sports Medicine, Dr. Jeffrey Anderson. In addition to being personally based in the Gampel Pavilion, Dr. Anderson's office is directly adjacent to the spacious athletic medical training facility. That area houses all of UConn's athletic trainers and physical therapists.

In 2002-03, the UConn women's basketball program played eight home games in the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion, attracting 78,830 fans. All six regular season contests were complete sellouts of 10,167.

UConn has had a spotless record at home in Gampel Pavilion in seven of the past 10 seasons. In the past 10 years, UConn is 151-3 at home in Storrs against collegiate opposition (19-0 in 1993-94, 18-0 in 1994-95, 18-1 in 1995-96, 17-0 in 1996-97, 16-0 in 1997-98, 12-1 in 1998-99, 15-1 in 1999-00, 14-0 in 2000-01, 14-0 in 2001-02 and 8-0 in 2002-03).

Since its first game in the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion (against Georgetown on January 31, 1990), the UConn women's basketball program is a superb 195-15 (.929 winning percentage) in 210 games against collegiate opponents in its on-campus home facility. That includes an 113-7 record against BIG EAST Conference opponents and an 82-8 mark against non-BIG EAST foes. During the past 10 seasons, UConn is a perfect 84-0 in Gampel Pavilion against BIG EAST Conference opponents.

In addition to outstanding regular season success in Gampel Pavilion, UConn has had remarkable post-season success in the building. The Huskies have won five BIG EAST Tournament titles in Gampel Pavilion (1994, 1996, 1997, 2000, 2001). Connecticut has played host to NCAA play in Gampel Pavilion for 14 consecutive years and holds a 24-2 NCAA mark in the facility, including a current 22-game NCAA winning streak in Gampel Pavilion.

Of the 210 UConn women's basketball games played against collegiate opposition in Gampel Pavilion during the past 13 seasons, 122 have been sold out, including the last 74 consecutive games dating back to an 82-69 win over Rutgers on December 31, 1997.

The Harry A. Gampel Pavilion in Storrs has proven to be a very special home for the Connecticut women's basketball program.

Hartford Civic Center

For the eighth season in a row, the 2003-04 University of Connecticut women's basketball team will use the Hartford Civic Center as its second home court.

In 2003-04, UConn will play a record-high eight regular season games in the Hartford Civic Center. In additon, 2004 will mark the first of three consecutive seasons in which the Civic Center will serve as the host site of the Big East Tournament.

The Huskies will play five non-league games in the Hartford Civic Center in 2003-04. They open play in Hartford on Nov. 25, against Florida State before facing Holy Cross (Nov. 30), Arizona State (Dec. 18) and North Carolina State (Dec. 29). UConn's last non-league game features the highly anticipated match-up against ACC power Duke, which will be televised by CBS on January 3.

The Huskies also have three BIG EAST games scheduled in Hartford, playing host to Boston College on Jan. 17, Rutgers on Jan. 19 and Pittsburgh on Feb. 17.

In its 2002-03 campaign, Connecticut played a record high seven soldout games in Hartford, beating Southern California (68-44), Saint Joseph's (82-48), No. 5 Tennessee (63-62), Rutgers (67-62), Georgetown (72-49), Syracuse (75-51) and West Virginia (78-58).

Prior to the 1996-97 season, the UConn women's basketball program had not played in the Hartford Civic Center for seven seasons. Connecticut had played nine women's basketball games in Hartford between 1980 and 1989. All of those contests were part of a UConn men's and women's basketball doubleheader. UConn posted a 5-4 record in those nine games and now sports a 34-4 overall mark in Hartford, including wins in its last 32 games.

Since beginning to play a portion of its home schedule in the Hartford Civic Center during the 1996-97 season, the UConn women's basketball program has won 29 consecutive games in the building, selling out 26 of those 29 games and averaging 16,294 for the 29 contests.

The Hartford Civic Center is located in the heart of downtown Hartford, and part of the Hartford Civic Center mall complex. Until December of 1998, it also served as the home court for the ABL's New England Blizzard of the Women's American Basketball League. A trio of former UConn greats were members of that team—Jennifer Rizzotti, Kara Wolters and Carla Berube.

The BIG EAST Championship and NCAA Tournament at Gampel Pavilion and the Hartford Civic Center

BIG EAST TOURNAMENT

In March of 2001, the BIG EAST Tournament was held at the University of Connecticut for the eighth time since play began in 1982-83. UConn has played host to five of the last nine championships at Harry A. Gampel Pavilion. In all, 65 BIG EAST Tournament games have been played at UConn.

The Huskies have won the BIG EAST Tournament a record 11 times, including sweeping the tournament and regular-season titles during nine of the last 10 seasons.

Beginning this season, each of the next three Big East Women's Basketball Tournaments will be played at the Hartford Civic Center.

NOTES: La Salle posted the NCAA East Regional victory over the Huskies in front of 1,535 fans at the Greer Field House on the UConn campus on March 15, 1989... The Huskies, seeded No. 8 in the region, entered the game with a 24-5 record as the BIG EAST Conference regular season and BIG EAST Tournament champions... La Salle was the MAAC Conference tournament runner-up, entering the game 27-2... UConn, making its first NCAA Tournament appearance, led 44-41 with 12:54 left in the game, but a knee injury forced BIG EAST Player-of-the-Year sophomore center Kerry Bascom to the sidelines for the rest of the game... La Salle out-scored UConn 31-19 in the last 12:34... UConn shot .323 from the floor, and was paced by Bascom (20 points, nine rebounds) and freshman Meghan Pattyson (13 rebounds)... Jennifer Snyder (17 points) and Sheila Wall (16 points) led the Explorers, who shot .450 from the field.

NOTES: UConn received a first-round bye and was seeded No. 4 in the East and lost to No. 5 seed Clemson, 61-59, in front of 2,585 fans at the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion... At the buzzer, UConn junior center Kerry Bascom's three-point shot attempt from the right wing hit the front rim and bounced away... The Huskies played without two-time BIG EAST Player-of-the-Year Bascom in the final 14:14 of the first half... Bascom injured her back on an out-of-bounds play, but returned for 14 second-half minutes... Connecticut entered the game at 25-5 as the BIG EAST regular season co-champions with an at-large NCAA bid after finishing second at the BIG EAST Tournament... Clemson was 21-9 entering the game... UConn was making its second straight NCAA Tournament showing at Storrs... In the final 24 seconds, Clemson missed the front end of three one-and-one free throw opportunities... After Peggy Sells missed the front end of a one-and-one with 24 seconds left, UConn brought the ball downcourt... Clemson 6-4 junior center Jackie Farmer blocked two Husky layup attempts, one by Bascom and one by junior guard Laura Lishness ... UConn was paced by sophomore guard Wendy Davis (game-high 20 points) and Bascom (15 points)... Clemson, which out-rebounded UConn 47-43, was led by freshman forward Shandy Bryan (19 points, 9 rebounds) ... UConn shot .343 from the field.

NOTES: With 19 seconds left and UConn trailing 80-78, three-time BIG EAST Player-of-the-Year senior center Kerry Bascom connected on a three-point play (a driving layup and subsequent free throw) to give UConn its final margin of victory... The win, in front of 4,623 fans at the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion in Storrs, was the first-ever NCAA victory and sent UConn to its first Final 16 appearance... The Huskies, the No. 3 seed, received a first round bye... Bascom's three-point play gave her a game-high 39 points, also a then-UConn single-game record... Her 39 points were the third highest single game total in NCAA Tournament first or second round history... At the buzzer, a foul was whistled on a Husky player under the Toledo basket, but after further review by the two game officials, the standby official and the scoreboard operator, it was determined that the whistle was after the final buzzer... Bascom was 13-of-20 from the field (5-of-7 in 3-pointers) was eight-for-11 from the foul line and pulled down a game-high 12 rebounds... UConn shot .476 (30-of-63), while Toledo shot .482 (27-of-56) from the floor... The Huskies held a 36-27 rebounding edge... Top Husky scorers besides Bascom included junior guard Wendy Davis (14 points, 4-of-8 in three-pointers), junior forward Meghan Pattyson (13 points).

NOTES: Playing its first NCAA Regional Championship, the No. 3 regional seed Huskies advanced to its first Final Eight berth with the upset win over No. 2 seed NC State... The Huskies set an East Regional record by hitting at a nine-for-16 clip from three-point range... The junior guard duo of reserve Orly Grossman (4-for-6 in three-pointers, 17 points) and starter Wendy Davis (4-for-7, 14 points) were UConn's biggest three-point threats in the win over the Wolfpack... Connecticut senior co-captains Kerry Bascom (game-high 23 points, team-high seven rebounds) and Laura Lishness (22 points) combined for 45 points on the night, as Connecticut stopped ACC power NC State (27-6)... Davis also netted the 1,000th point of her Husky career with a 17-foot jumper with 15:21 left in the contest, to become the eighth UConn player to surpass the 1,000-career point milestone... UConn trailed by 10, (46-36) with 15:47 remaining before the Huskies went on a 16-4 run over the next 5:19 to take a 54-47 lead on a Lishness layup at 10:28... In this run, the Huskies converted on four three-pointers, two by Davis and one apiece by Bascom and Grossman... NC State closed the gap to five (62-57) on senior guard Andrea Stinson's layup (at 6:20), but Grossman then hit a 20-foot jumper and Lishness followed with a reverse layup to up the Husky edge to 10, 67-57, with 4:11 left... Connecticut shot a solid 51.7% from the field (31-of-60) and limited the Wolfpack to 40.0% (30-of-75) accuracy... NC State outrebounded UConn, 43-34.

NOTES: Connecticut (29-4) advanced to its first Final Four and became the first team from the BIG EAST Conference and from the New England region to reach the Final Four with the East Regional Championship game victory over No. 5 seed Clemson... For the second consecutive game, No. 3 seed UConn eliminated an ACC team from the NCAA Tournament... The Huskies pushed their win streak to seven games, paced by senior center Kerry Bascom (game-high 22 points), who was voted the East Regional's Most Outstanding Performer... The Husky defense, led by Bascom and 5-11 junior forward Meghan Pattyson, held Clemson's 6-4 senior center Jackie Farmer to just four points, 10 below her average, before Farmer fouled out with 5:41 left... All-Tournament team members junior guard Wendy Davis (12 points), senior guard Laura Lishness (8 points, game-high 10 rebounds) and Pattyson (10 points, nine rebounds) also led UConn... Prior to the 1991 season, UConn was 0-2 in NCAA Tournament action, and became only the third team in NCAA Tournament history advancing to the Final Four that had not won a previous tournament game until that particular year... The game was a re-match of the 1990 NCAA Tournament second round game (Final 32), which Clemson won, 61-59, at Storrs... In front of 2,082 fans at the Palestra, UConn connected on seven of eight free throws in the final 1:09 of play to stifle Clemson's comeback, led by Bascom (2-for-2 from the line) and 5-11 junior forward Meghan Pattyson (3-for-4)... UConn never trailed after a 2-0 Clemson lead, but Lady Tiger's Kerry Boyatt hit a three-pointer to bring Clemson to within three, 57-54 with 19 seconds left... UConn's All-Tournament Wendy Davis then connected on both ends of a one-and-one for a 59-54 lead with 16 seconds left... Clemson guard Angie Peters then sank a three-pointer with eight seconds left, cutting the lead to two (59-57) before Pattyson sealed the win by hitting the first of a one-and-one... UConn (.450 from the floor), held Clemson to .333 shooting (23-of-69)... Clemson was 7-of-13 from the line... UConn had the 39-35 rebounding edge... Clemson finished the year 22-11.

NOTES: Connecticut saw its season end in the NCAA Final Four semifinals, as No. 2 ranked Virginia handed the Huskies the six-point loss, despite a terrific UConn defensive effort which held UVa to 30 points below its season scoring average of 91.1 ppg... UConn, in its first ever trip to the Final Four, ended the season at 29-5, with a school-record 29 wins... Virginia (31-2) advanced to the NCAA Championship Game where it lost to Tennessee, 70-67 in overtime... Cavalier senior forward Tonya Cardoza hit four clutch free throws in the final two seconds, and had a team-high 16 points and three steals to lift UVa to the win before 7,931, the largest crowd UConn had ever played to... Virginia led by as many as 14 points, but the "Cinderella Team" from Storrs staged a comeback, outscoring UVa 16-5 to pull within three points, 50-47, on Meghan Pattyson's layup with 5:54 remaining... Virginia then built the lead back to eight, 55-47 with 3:01 left, but UConn surged again, out-scoring the Cavaliers 6-0 to pull within two points, 55-53, on All-American senior Kerry Bascom's spin layup with 26 seconds remaining... On the Cavalier's inbounds play, Cardoza was fouled and sank both ends of a one-and-one and on UConn's last possession, Cardoza intercepted a cross-court pass and fed the ball to Melanie Wagener for a layup at the buzzer... UConn junior Wendy Davis had a game-high 17 points, while Bascom (14 points, season and game-high 14 rebounds) and All-Kodak District I senior Laura Lishness (six points, game-high six assists) closed out their superb collegiate careers... UConn shot .385 (20-for-52) and UVa hit .353 (24-for-68) of its shots.

NOTES: Junior All-America Rebecca Lobo had game highs of 27 points and 15 rebounds to lead UConn over No. 4 seed Southern Mississippi... The win gave UConn a 30-2 record, its most victories in a season in program history... Freshman Carla Berube also contributed 20 points off the bench, while 6-7 freshman Kara Wolters added 14 points... UConn, with the nation's No. 1 field goal percentage defense, held the Golden Eagles to .378 shooting (28-for-74)... UConn held a 52-39 rebounding edge... UConn's other Sweet 16 showing was in 1991... UConn led 33-32 at intermission... The Huskies built a 10-point lead (17-7 with 14:24 to go on senior Tonya Boone's layup) in the first minutes of the game... Southern Mississippi steadily answered back, until it closed the gap to one point (29-28) with 2:59 to go on a Kim Adams free throw... A Berube layup at 1:33 to go pushed the lead to five points (33-28), but two successive Eagle baskets cut the score to the halftime margin...The first eight minutes of the second half was a struggle for the lead, and UConn was down five points, 50-45, with 11:59 to play... Wolters scored a layup with 8:24 to go and the Huskies never trailed again.

NOTES: UConn advanced to the NCAA Final Four for the second consecutive year and third time in the last six years... It was UConn's first win against SEC foe Vanderbilt in three tries and the first time this season that UConn and its opponent were tied at the half... The Huskies were led by "double-doubles" from All-America junior Kara Wolters (game-high 17 points, 10 rebounds) and senior Jamelle Elliott (16 points, team-high 12 rebounds)... Sophomore forward Nykesha Sales added 16 points, while junior Carla Berube had three points and 11 rebounds... UConn crashed the boards against Vandy, and held a 51-35 edge in rebounding over its taller opponent... The Mideast Regional Most Outstanding Player was UConn senior guard Jen Rizzotti, who produced an outstanding overall game with seven points, seven assists, six rebounds and two steals...UConn led 20-9 with 11:50 to play in the first half... Elliott had 13 points and 10 rebounds in 20 minutes in the first half... She fouled out with 5:26 left in the game, with UConn leading 55-53...The Huskies received help from their bench, as freshman Amy Duran hit two key three-point jumpers from the baseline and Sales added another in the final 7:05... UConn led, 57-53, when Sales connected on a three-pointer from the wing with 3:42 left for a 60-53 lead... After Vanderbilt closed to within five, 62-57 with 2:23 left on a layup from Angela Gorsica, Duran nailed her second trey of the game from the left baseline with 1:15 left, to push the Husky lead to eight, 65-57... Rizzotti, Wolters, Sales and Elliott all were named to the Mideast Regional All-Tournament Team, along with Vanderbilt's Sheri Sam.

NOTES: A late overtime flurry by Tennessee prevented the Huskies with a chance to repeat as NCAA Champion, as the Lady Vols prevailed, 88-83, in overtime at the Charlotte Coliseum... UConn's luck ran out in overtime against the Lady Vols after three straight wins over its rival from the SEC... Nykesha Sales, with a career-high 28 points, hit a three-point jumper from the top of the key with four seconds left in regulation to force overtime, yet Jennifer Rizzotti's three-pointer to tie it in OT with three seconds to go was tipped away by UT's 6-4 sophomore Tiffani Johnson...What made UConn's comeback that more dramatic was that the Huskies played the final 1:19 of the second half and overtime without leading scorer Kara Wolters (13 points, 10 rebounds, six blocks), who fouled out with UConn trailing 73-70... The UConn season began and ended with overtime losses on a neutral court - to Louisiana Tech (ironically, in Knoxville, TN) and then to Tennessee... There were 12 lead changes and 18 ties in the contest... The teams entered overtime tied 75-75, and the teams traded baskets before UT took the lead for good, 82-81 on a free throw by senior guard Michelle Marciniak with 1:43 to play... Tennessee would go seven-for-eight from the line in the final 1:43 for their final points of the game... After two free throws by Abby Conklin (84-81) with 1:22 left and a UT 30-second violation, UConn pulled within one, 84-83 on a Sales driving layup with 19.9 seconds to go...Marciniak was fouled on the next possession, and sank both ends of a one-and-one two seconds later (86-83)... UConn saw its last shot blocked (Rizzotti's) and two foul shots one second later by UT senior Latina Davis sealed the 88-83 win...Sales scored half of UConn's 30 first half points.

NOTES: Five Huskies finished in double figures as No. 1 seed UConn won its NCAA Tournament first round game for the fourth straight year... Carla Berube and Paige Sauer led all scorers with 17 points, while Nykesha Sales (15), Kara Wolters (14) and Amy Duran (11) also posted double-figures... Sauer's 17 points was her career high and five better than her previous best of 12... Sales recorded a career-high nine steals, which also put her in a three-way tie for second-most steals in any NCAA Tournament game (NCAA record is 10)... The nine thefts also ranked first for most in a Midwest Region first or second round game... Lehigh tied the second lowest points scored in an NCAA Tournament game with 35... UConn's 68-point margin of victory was the third highest in NCAA Tournament history... Connecticut outrebounded Lehigh, 58-23, and that 35-board margin tied the fourth largest rebounding margin in an NCAA Tournament game... Additionally, Connecticut's 58 rebounds and 68-point margin of victory were UConn's best-ever in the NCAA Tournament... Lehigh led, 5-4, when UConn went on a 13-0 run and took the lead the rest of the way... Lehigh made its first-ever NCAA appearance... The game was an advance sell-out of 10,027, UConn's 13th home sell-out of the season... UConn lost the services of freshman star Shea Ralph for the remainder of the NCAA Tournament after she went down with a right knee anterior cruciate ligament tear (ACL) with 12:31 left in the first half... Ralph was injured as she jump-stopped on a fastbreak layup attempt.

NOTES: Carla Berube led the Huskies in scoring for the second consecutive game, posting a game-high 19 points... With the win, UConn made its fourth consecutive NCAA Sweet Sixteen appearance and its fifth Final 16 showing overall... Kara Wolters added 16, Paige Sauer scored 13 and Nykesha Sales had 10 as four UConn players finished in double figures for the 22nd time this season... Sauer also recorded double-figures against Lehigh, marking the first time she had posted double-figures in consecutive games... Sauer also recorded a career-high four blocks... Iowa became just the second team of the season to block five Husky shots, tying Seton Hall's five on February 5... The win was UConn's first ever over Iowa, as the Hawkeyes had won the previous three contests... The game saw nine lead changes and one tie before the Huskies took an 11-10 lead with 12:33 remaining in the first half and never trailed again... The game was the final home contest for the Huskies... UConn posted a 19-0 home court record (17-0 at Gampel Pavilion, 2-0 at the Hartford Civic Center) to go undefeated in home court play for the third time in school history -- and for the third time in the previous four years... The UConn senior trio of Wolters, Berube and Missy Rose posted an amazing four-year home court record of 74-1, a .987 winning percentage at home... UConn was 72-1 at Gampel Pavilion and 2-0 at the Hartford Civic Center during their four-year tenure... Berube saw action in the 136th game of her career, setting the UConn record for career games played.

NOTES: The Huskies led the series 4-1 going into the game with the defending national champions... Nykesha Sales led all players with a double-double effort of 26 points and 14 rebounds... Kara Wolters also had a double-double night with 17 points and 11 boards... The game was a close start with three ties before Tennessee took the lead for a 45-33 halftime lead... In the second half, the Huskies cut it to a 1-point game, but never took the lead even though they outscored the Vols 48-46 in the last 20 minutes... UConn hit .432 (32-74) from the floor and .481 (13-27) from the line... With Wolters' 17 points, she ended her career with 2,141 points -- just eight points more than Rebecca Lobo and 36 points shy of UConn's No. 1 career leader, Kerry Bascom (2,177)... Sales advanced to No. 5 in career scoring, passing both Cathy Bochain and Jennifer Rizzotti with this game... Both Wolters and Sales were named to the NCAA Midwest Regional All-Tournament Team.

NOTES: Freshman Tamika Williams converted on two free throws with 7 seconds left to give the Huskies an 86-84 win over Xavier in the second round of the NCAA Tournament before a sellout crowd of 10,027 in Gampel Pavilion... With the win, UConn advanced to its sixth consecutive Sweet Sixteen appearance... The Huskies, who had not led in the game since a 20-17 margin at 10:41 in the first half, were down 84-80 with 1:58 remaining when Xavier turned the ball over on two straight possessions... UConn capitalized on each as freshman Asjha Jones cut the lead to two on a foul line jumper, and sophomore Svetlana Abrosimova tied the game with an 8-foot jumper... After two missed free throws by Xavier, the Huskies had two chances at the hoop before Williams was sent to the line for the win... Williams led UConn with 19 pts. and eight rebounds... Nikki Kremer led all scorers with 23 points... The Huskies outrebounded the Musketeers, 39-28 and shot .507 from the floor compared to Xavier's .475.

NOTES: Despite leading by 12 at the half, 49-37, the Huskies fell apart in the second half allowing Notre Dame to take a 90-75 come from behind victory to advance to the NCAA Championship game and overtake Purdue for the Championship title... The Huskies were in complete control of the game at the half with Kelly Schumacher and Sue Bird having 10 points apiece and Kennitra Johnson and Tamika Williams each chipping in eight... UConn was holding the eventual NCAA Player of the Year, Ruth Riley, to only three points and one rebound... Meanwhile Schumacher opened the second half just one rebound shy of a double-double with nine boards after 20 minutes... However, the second half was another story altogether... Bird opened the half with a three-pointer for a 15-point lead, UConn's largest of the night, but then the Irish found an answer... Notre Dame rattled off a 16-2 run to take a one-point lead with 12:40 remaining... After trading hoops for about three minutes, the Irish sealed the game with another run, this time 13-1, to leave the Huskies behind... UConn shot a season low .237 in the second half... Riley scored 15 of her 18 points in the second half, while Alicia Ratay finished with 20 points and Niele Ivey led all scorers with 21 points... Sue Bird led the Huskies with 18 points, while Kelly Schumacher had 12 points and grabbed a game high and career high 17 rebounds... UConn outrebounded the Irish 51-43... The Irish had 36 attempts at the free throw line and connected on 28.

The Story of the BIG EAST Conference

As The BIG EAST Conference celebrates its 25th anniversary in 2003-04, it takes pride in its long list of accomplishments. Providing opportunities to excel amongst the nation's best, both athletically and academically, has always been its mission.

Since opening its doors in 1979, the league has won 22 national championships in six different sports and 118 student-athletes have won individual national titles. The BIG EAST has always been able to boast that some of its best students are also some of its best athletes. More than 300 student-athletes have earned Academic All-America honors, including Connecticut basketball standout Emeka Okafor who earned first team recognition last year. A BIG EAST student-athlete has won the Honda-Broderick Cup as Collegiate Woman of the Year four times, the last by Notre Dame soccer player Cindy Daws in 1997-98.

BIG EAST student-athletes have continued their success after leaving the classrooms and playing fields. Former Connecticut women's basketball standout Dr. Leigh Curl was inducted into the Verizon Academic All-America Hall of Fame in 1999. Former Georgetown men's basketball star Dikembe Mutombo was named a winner of the President's Service Award, the highest honor in the U.S. for volunteer service.

The BIG EAST continued to thrive amongst the nation's elite in 2002-03. It became the first conference to win the men's and women's NCAA titles and the men's NIT Championship in the same year. The Syracuse men won their first national championship, the Connecticut women took home their fourth national title and St. John's won the NIT for the sixth time. The BIG EAST has won each of the last four women's basketball National Championship titles.

In the classroom, 21 student-athletes earned 2002-03 Academic All-America honors, including 10 who garnered first team accolades. UConn's Diana Taurasi was the consensus national player of the year in women's basketball. Additionally, she was the women's basketball Honda Award winner.

Whether it's the student-athletes or the league as a whole, moving forward successfully has been the norm for the conference that was formed in 1979.

In the spring of 2001, the BIG EAST added women's lacrosse to its growing list of sports and the inaugural women's golf championship was held in the spring of 2003.

When the 1990s began, The BIG EAST Conference had just completed its eighth season with nine members. The league was arguably as healthy as a conference could be. The BIG EAST was a headline-grabber immediately, especially in men's basketball, its signature sport. The BIG EAST Football Conference did not exist.

The '90s was a decade of enormous change in college athletics with conferences adding new members and new leagues beginning. The BIG EAST was no different than most groups. The BIG EAST Football Conference, with eight members, became a major player in college football immediately after its inception in 1991.

The BIG EAST became a reality on May 31, 1979, following a meeting of athletic directors from Providence College, St. John's, Georgetown and Syracuse Universities. Seton Hall, Connecticut and Boston College completed the original seven-school alliance.

After one season, Villanova was added and began play in 1980-81. Two seasons later, Pittsburgh joined the group and started competition in '82-83.

Miami was admitted in 1990 and began BIG EAST competition in '91-92. Rutgers, West Virginia and Notre Dame joined in '94 and started to compete in '95-96.

While the membership has increased, the focus of the BIG EAST remains unchanged. It is a group that reflects a tradition of broad-based programs, led by administrators and coaches who place a constant emphasis on academic integrity. The BIG EAST Conference has enjoyed a leadership role nationally. Its student-athletes own significantly high graduation rates and their record of scholastic achievement notably reflect a balance between intercollegiate athletics and academics.

Any successful consortium enjoys outstanding leadership. Michael Tranghese, the league's first full-time employee, and for 11 years the associate of Dave Gavitt, took over the Commissioner's reins in June, 1990. In his first year at the helm, he administered the formation of The BIG EAST Football Conference.

BIG EAST sports attract the interest of followers in the nation's largest media markets including New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston, Washington, D.C., Miami, Pittsburgh and Hartford. The league has long been considered a leader in innovative concepts in promotion and publicity, particularly regarding television. Those efforts have resulted in unparalleled visibility for BIG EAST student-athletes. Exclusive long-range television contracts with CBS, ESPN, Inc. and ABC provide BIG EAST basketball and football with more television exposure.

While BIG EAST basketball games are regular sellouts at campus and major public arenas, including the annual BIG EAST Championship in Madison Square Garden, attendance figures also are significant at BIG EAST soccer, women's basketball and baseball games.

More than 475 BIG EAST athletes have earned All-America recognition and dozens have won individual NCAA national championships. The BIG EAST has been well-represented in U.S. or foreign national and Olympic teams, with several athletes earning gold medals in the summer Olympiads in Sydney in 2000, Atlanta in '96, Barcelona in '92, Seoul in '88 and Los Angeles in '84.

The BIG EAST has its headquarters in Providence where the conference administers to more than 5,500 athletes in 23 sports.

UConn's Success in the BIG EAST

The University of Connecticut women's basketball team has dominated the BIG EAST conference, winning 13 regular season titles and 11 tournament championships. The combined 24 titles is more than any other basketball team in the league - men's or women's teams.

UConn has posted a 259-76 (.773) regular season conference mark since the 1982-83 season. The Huskies have also won 41 of 51 tournament games for a .804 winning percentage.

The chart below illustrates how Connecticut has collected its BIG EAST wins over the years.

The Connecticut women's basketball program has produced dominant national and conference players. Nine Huskies have been named BIG EAST Player of the Year in 12 different seasons. Leading the way was Kerry Bascom, who won three Player of the Year titles in 1989, 1990 and 1991. UConn standout Rebecca Lobo was honored with the title twice in 1994 and 1995. Jennifer Rizzotti, Kara Wolters, Nykesha Sales, Svetlana Abrosimova, Shea Ralph and most recently, Sue Bird, have also been named BIG EAST Player of the Year. Most recently, Diana Taurasi was tabbed with the honor for the 2002-03 season.

The Huskies have also received many other individual awards. Nykesha Sales was a two-time BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year. Sales was honored with the title in its inaugural year in 1997 and again in 1998, and Ashley Battle earned the honor in 2003 for the Huskies.

UConn players have also garnered 70 BIG EAST Player of the Week honors, led by Rebecca Lobo with a BIG EAST record 12 career honors. Nykesha Sales holds the league single-season title with seven in the 1997-98 season. UConn has also had 57 Rookie of the Week awards dating back to the 1982-83 season.

The 1989 BIG EAST Tournament marked the first of many successful league tournaments for the Huskies. UConn wrapped up the regular season with a 13-2 BIG EAST record, finishing first and claiming the No. 1 seed in the league tournament. UConn played under the direction of associate head coach Chris Dailey. Seton Hall hosted the championship and the Huskies faced Georgetown first. UConn defeated the Hoyas, 85-73, to advance to only the program's second BIG EAST Semifinal. In that game, UConn took a 65-45 win over Boston College. For the final, UConn matched up against a tough Providence team, taking a convincing 84-65 victory for the Huskies' first BIG EAST Tournament Championship. Kerry Bascom was dubbed the tournament MVP while Kris Lamb was named to the All-Tournament team.

Two years after winning its first league tournament title, the 1990-91 Huskies went to the Georgetown campus to claim a second. UConn won the league's regular season title for the third time with a 14-2 BIG EAST record for the No. 1 seed and took a 64-47 win from Villanova in the opener. Connecticut then faced Seton Hall, battling to a 69-54 victory. The championship game pit UConn against Providence in a game that remained close throughout. However, the Huskies prevailed, 79-74, in one of the closest final contests in tournament history. Meghan Pattyson was the MVP of the tournament, while Kerry Bascom was an All-Tournament selection.

The 1993-94 season began Connecticut's 'total dominance' of the BIG EAST as the Huskies would start its streak of eight consecutive regular season and tournament titles by winning the 1993-94 regular season with a 17-1 record and adding the league's tournament championship in the familiar surroundings of Gampel Pavilion. UConn defeated St. John's in the opening game, 69-45, and overpowered Providence, winning by 36 points in a 92-56 romp. UConn then took its third league tournament title with a 77-51 victory over Seton Hall in the final. Rebecca Lobo was named the MVP of the tournament, while Jamelle Elliott and Kara Wolters were named to the All-Tournament Team.

Nothing could stop the Huskies in 1994-95. The team finished the BIG EAST regular season with a perfect 18-0 record. With Seton Hall hosting the championship, the Huskies took a commanding 92-63 decision over Providence in the first contest. UConn advanced to the title game, by routing Pittsburgh, 95-63, in the semifinals. Connecticut faced the host Pirates in the championship contest for the second time in as many years, breezing to an 85-49 victory. Kara Wolters took the MVP honors while Rebecca Lobo and Nykesha Sales were named to the All-Tournament Team. In addition to the BIG EAST, the Huskies would also win another postseason tournament - the NCAA Division I Tournament, finishing with a perfect 35-0 record.

In 1996-97, the Huskies again brought a perfect 18-0 league mark into the BIG EAST Tournament. UConn hosted the event after earning its fourth consecutive regular season title, but did so without head coach Geno Auriemma. Auriemma missed the tournament to mourn the death of his father, Donato. Associate head coach Chris Dailey took over in Auriemma's stead to lead the Huskies. In the quarterfinals, UConn dropped Villanova, 63-45. The Huskies then defeated Miami, 98-71, to advance to the finals. Connecticut faced Notre Dame in the championship tilt for the second straight year, winning 86-77, for its fourth straight and sixth overall BIG EAST Tournament title. Nykesha Sales earned the MVP honors while Carla Berube and Kara Wolters were on the All-Tournament squad.

Connecticut won the 1997-98 regular season title with a 17-1 league record and travelled to Rutgers for the BIG EAST Championship. First, UConn took a narrow 84-82 win over West Virginia in a wild shoot-out. The next night was different with a 73-53 victory over Notre Dame. The Huskies faced Rutgers in the finals, the only conference team to defeat them during the regular season. UConn won a close game for the title, 67-58, although playing without the services of injured All-American Nykesha Sales - the BIG EAST Player of the Year. Co-captain Rita Williams was named MVP while rookie Svetlana Abrosimova and Amy Duran earned All-Tournament honors.

The Huskies made it another clean sweep - winning its ninth regular season title and its eighth BIG EAST Tournament championship in an 11-year span. UConn compiled a 17-1 league record and Connecticut then continued its reign over BIG EAST opponents by adding its sixth straight tournament championship. In the opening game, UConn defeated St. John's 82-58 at Rutgers and then easily handled Georgetown a 77-42 defeat. The title game resulted in a 96-75 victory over Notre Dame. Shea Ralph was named the Most Outstanding Performer while Svetlana Abrosimova and Asjha Jones were dubbed All-Tournament honorees.

The Huskies opened a new decade of BIG EAST dominance after capturing the BIG EAST regular season title by virtue of an undefeated league season (16-0), and winning the BIG EAST Tournament title for the ninth time and seventh consecutive year. UConn entered the 2000 tournament as the No. 1 seed for the seventh straight season, defeating St. John's (85-41) and two ranked opponents, No. 18/19 Boston College (79-54) and No. 8/10 Rutgers (79-59) by an average margin of 29.6 points per game. Tamika Williams was named the tournament's Most Outstanding Player, while Swin Cash and Svetlana Abrosimova were both named to the BIG EAST All-Tournament teams. The Huskies didn't stop there, and went on to capture their second National Championship with a final overall record of 36-1.

In what was billed as an "Instant Classic" by ESPN, the Huskies won their 10th BIG EAST Title, eighth straight, in dramatic fashion when Sue Bird drove the length of the floor and hit a floater in the paint at the buzzer to lift the No. 2 Huskies over top-ranked Notre Dame, 78-76, in the BIG EAST Championship game. The tournament itself was drama-filled as the East Coast was hit with a crippling snow storm over the weekend which caused a leak in the roof of Gampel, delaying UConn's semifinal victory over Rutgers. Freshman Diana Taurasi was named the Tournament Most Outstanding Player, and was the first-ever rookie to garner the honor. Asjha Jones and Shea Ralph earned All-Tournament team honors. Ralph's collegiate career was ended at the end of the first half of the championship game when she tore her ACL.

The BIG EAST Tournament Most Outstanding Player Asjha Jones notched a double-double with 19 points and 11 rebounds as the No. 1 University of Connecticut women's basketball team rolled to its ninth consecutive (11th overall) BIG EAST Tournament crown with a 96-54 win over No. 20 Boston College. The Huskies advanced to the finals after defeating its first two opponents (Seton Hall, 78-48/Villanova, 83-39) by an average margin of victory of 37 points. The 42-point win over Boston College was the largest ever for a BIG EAST Tournament Final. Playing in their final BIG EAST Tournament game, UConn's heralded senior class accounted for 63 of Connecticut's 96 points. Jones averaged 15 points and 8.3 rebounds in three tournament games to garner the Most Outstanding Player honors, the first of her career. Meanwhile, Sue Bird, Tamika Williams, Swin Cash and Diana Taurasi each earned All-Tournament honors making history as the first starting five to all earn awards.

169 Consecutive Weeks in the Polls

The University of Connecticut women's basketball team has been ranked in the Top 25 for 189 consecutive weeks, beginning the streak on November 23, 1993. In 2003, UConn finished atop of the USA TODAY/ESPN and AP polls after capturing its second consecutive NCAA Title. The Huskies finished No. 1 in both the AP and USA TODAY/ESPN polls after a 39-0 record in 2002. UConn was also top-ranked in the final USA TODAY poll in 1994-95, the 35-0 National Championship season, and in the final ESPN poll in 1995-96. For the second time in school history, the Huskies were ranked No. 1 wire-to-wire during 2001-02- they also went wire-to-wire in 1999-2000.

This Is The University of Connecticut

Distinctions

Ranked the top public university in New England for five consecutive years running and now considered one of the top 25 public universities in the country by US News and World Report, the University of Connecticut is making great strides advancing to a position of national leadership in public higher education. Further, the Carnegie Foundation classifies UConn as a Research University-Extensive, a distinction shared by fewer than 4% of America's higher education institutions saluted for their breadth and range of research. As the only public university in New England with its own schools of law, medicine, dental medicine, and social work, UConn offers comprehensive, highly acclaimed educational opportunities.

Location

The University of Connecticut's main campus is located in Storrs, roughly 30 minutes from Hartford, Connecticut's capital city and within driving distance of New York, Boston, and Providence. UConn also has regional campuses in Avery Point, Hartford, Stamford, Torrington, and Waterbury. With the regional campuses, UConn Health Center in Farmington, and Schools of Social Work and Law in the Hartford area, the University of Connecticut offers a range of high quality programs in a number of ideal locations.

Student Profile

Founded in 1881, the University of Connecticut enrolls almost 26,000 students representing every state in the nation and more than 100 countries. Increasingly, record numbers of high-achieving students from diverse backgrounds are making UConn their school of choice. Since 1995, UConn's freshman and minority enrollments have risen dramatically as SAT scores for incoming students have soared upward. During this same period, hundreds of high school valedictorians and salutatorians have joined the student body. The impressive increases in every measure of student quality signal a boost in the student population eligible to participate in UConn's nationally recognized honors program.

The University of Connecticut maintains a strong tradition of student involvement. More than 250 clubs and organizations offer opportunities to participate in everything from academic discussion groups to current recreational trends. Offering a rich array of programs to broaden a student's education, UConn's Study Abroad/ Study Away Office facilitates travel to more than 40 countries, while the National Student Exchange Program allows UConn students to study at well over 100 universities throughout America and its territories. Additionally, cooperative education programs and internships integrate classroom learning and work experience in business, industry, and public service.

Majors and Degrees

UConn encompasses 17 Schools and Colleges offering eight undergraduate degrees in more than 100 majors, 13 graduate degrees in over 80 fields of study, and graduate professional programs in business, law, medicine, dental medicine, pharmacy, and social work. The College of Agriculture and Natural Resources offers the bachelor of science in ten areas highlighted by challenging field-based coursework.

Combining academic study with hands-on clinical experience, the School of Allied Health offers the bachelor of science in dietetics and medical laboratory sciences and the integrated bachelor of science/master of science in physical therapy.

Incorporating a team-oriented approach to discuss actual corporate case studies, the School of Business offers a bachelor of science in nine areas.

The Neag School of Education offers the five-year integrated bachelor's/master's teacher education program as well as bachelor of arts and bachelor of science degrees in the department of kinesiology.

Modern housing and living accomodations, first-class dining facilities and state-of-the-art facilities are all part of the major transformation that has taken place throughout the Storrs campus.

With an emphasis on lab and project work, the School of Engineering offers a bachelor of science in 14 disciplines.

Focusing upon community service fieldwork, the School of Family Studies offers a bachelor of science with a major in human development and family relations.

Encouraging students to explore from a wealth of internship possibilities, the School of Fine Arts offers Bachelor of fine arts and bachelor of music degrees with majors in art, dramatic arts, music, and puppetry.

Providing the core of UConn's general education requirements, the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences offers bachelor of arts and bachelor of science degrees in approximately 40 academic areas.

The School of Nursing offers a bachelor of science degree, where hands-on clinical experiences are prevalent.

With an innovative six-year program leading to doctor of pharmacy, the School of Pharmacy also offers a four-year bachelor of science degree in pharmacy.

For those students whose academic interests encompass two or more of the academic departments, UConn offers an individualized major. Non-traditional, part time students may earn a bachelor of general studies degree, while two-year associate degree programs are available through the Ratcliffe Hicks School of Agriculture.

Faculty

UConn's faculty are among the most impressive scholars in the U.S. and many are recognized throughout the world as leaders in education, research, and scholarship. Beginning with New Student Move-In Day, when faculty and staff help move students into residence halls, professors strive to personalize the UConn experience. Presiding over classes that average approximately 30 students, faculty members are highly accessible in their roles as teachers, student advisors, and mentors. With opportunities to participate in original research or to receive a grant to work independently under renowned professors as part of UConn's Undergraduate Summer Research program, students apply their knowledge and become high achievers.

UConn's professors are conducting scientific research of international consequence and garnering international attention. The University's research in regenerative biology and its historic partnerships with the African National Congress in South Africa and the Metropolitan Opera in New York City are noteworthy accomplishments. UConn's Neag School of Education is home to the world-renowned National Research Center on Gifted and Talented and the Accelerated Schools Project. The journal Science recently reported that researchers in the School of Medicine had successfully isolated the gene that causes the most common form of glaucoma, a breakthrough that could lead to early detection and prevention of blindness.

Attractions

A gateway to Storrs, the Lodewick Visitors Center introduces students to the characteristic facilities that define UConn's 4,000-acre main campus. Chief among these, the Homer Babbidge Library contains more than two-and-a-half million volumes and was recently recognized as the top public research library in New England by The Chronicle of Higher Education. Staging professional touring attractions that range from Broadway musicals to intimate cabarets, the Jorgensen Center for the Performing Arts showcases the region's most noteworthy dramatic events. With a gallery of 4,000 pieces, the recently expanded William Benton Museum of Art features a rotation of intriguing exhibits further complemented by the cultural artifacts on display in UConn's Museum of Natural History. Visitors may experience it all while lodging in the Nathan Hale Inn, a

The beautiful University of Connecticut campus in Storrs has undergone a revitalization in recent years. Some of the more noticeable features are an increase in pedestrian friendly areas, some of the most state-of-the-art technically-advanced classrooms in the United States and new dormitory complexes in many areas, part of a renovated campus lifestyle.

UCONN 2000/21st Century UConn

UConn is renewing, rebuilding, and enhancing its facilities through an unprecedented $2.3 billion, 20-year state investment in the University's infrastructure. The most ambitious publicly financed university building program in the country, "a building boom that would be the envy of most university presidents," according to the New York Times, the UCONN 2000/21st Century UConn program reflects a vision of a dynamic institution. Now in its ninth year, the program has invigorated the living and learning environment, helped advance faculty research, and stimulated public and private investment.

UCONN 2000 and 21st Century UConn revitalize the state's future by providing the means for the University to attract high achieving students, high quality faculty, and funding from both private donors and grants. Before UCONN 2000, Connecticut was one of the states with the highest ratio of students leaving the state for college. Today, there has been a dramatic reversal of this trend.

The UCONN 2000 program has already resulted in the completion of more than 100 projects, including the Chemistry Building—one of the best-designed buildings in the world according to the 2000 International Architecture Yearbook—School of Business, the modern Biophysics Building, Information Technologies Engineering Building and the Agricultural Biotechnology Laboratory, as well as the construction of residence communities such as the Hilltop Apartments, Charter Oak Apartments, Hilltop Suites, South Campus and Husky Village. In addition, renovations to the Babbidge Library, Wilbur Cross, the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, and to numerous residence halls and apartments have transformed UConn's physical appearance.

Among the initiatives to be made possible by 21st Century UConn is a $300 million upgrade to the UConn Health Center that will include the construction of a state-of-the art medical research facility with 30 research laboratories. Enhancements to the Storrs campus including new facilities to replace Monteith and Arjona Halls and the Torrey Life Sciences Building as well as additions to the Benton Museum, Psychology building, Storrs Hall and the School of Fine Arts will continue to reshape the University. Furthermore, renovations to the UConn Law School and the regional campuses at Avery Point, Stamford, Torrington, Waterbury, and West Hartford will improve the quality of a UConn education throughout the state.

Thanks in large part to these generous initiatives, the University is enjoying remarkable success in student recruitment and retention, attracting world-class scholars, and securing significant research funding. The cranes that fill the skyline over UConn's campuses are indicative of a truly remarkable success story in American public higher education and suggest there are still great things ahead in the University's ascent into the top ranks of public higher education in the nation.

Governor John G. Rowland signs 21st Century UConn into law during ceremonies held at South Campus on August 26, 2002. The $1.3 billion building program to continue the remarkable transformation of the University of Connecticut was approved on August 13 by the General Assembly.

The new UConn Co-Op offers the University community a first-rate bookstore, cafe, convenience store and general shopping.

The new Hilltop Apartments at UConn offer students modern living conditions in a campus environment.

President Philip E. Austin

University of Connecticut President Philip E. Austin has led the school through a period of unprecedented academic and physical growth. Dr. Austin became the thirteenth President of the University of Connecticut at the beginning of the academic year in the fall of 1996.

As chief executive of the University, Dr. Austin has overseen the management and implantation of the $1 billion infrastructure renewal program called "UCONN 2000" that has sparked the University's remarkable transformation. Connecticut Governor John G. Rowland and the Connecticut General Assembly provided a resounding endorsement of the University's advancement under Dr. Austin when, in 2002, they endorsed and signed into law "21st Century UConn", a legislative initiative that provides an additional $1.3 billion to extend the immensely successful UCONN 2000 program through 2015.

Dr. Austin's commitment to academic excellence has led to increases in student quality and diversity as UConn has become the school of choice for high achieving students. Since 1995, the freshman class in Storrs has grown from just over 2,000 students to nearly 3,200, a 58% increase. At the same time, minority freshman enrollment is up 61%, average SAT scores for incoming freshmen have risen 37 points, and nearly 400 Valedictorians and Salutatorians have enrolled at UConn. The University's Board of Trustees' enrollment goal of 25,000 by Fall 2005 was reached last Fall, three years ahead of schedule. Since 1999, U.S. News and World Report has ranked UConn the top public university in New England.

"Campaign UConn", the University's six-year capital campaign launched by President Austin is on schedule to meet or exceed its $300 million fundraising goal when it concludes in June of 2004. Personal financial contributions of historic proportions coupled with record numbers of individual gifts are propelling UConn's most successful fundraising campaign.

A strong advocate for achievement in the classroom and laboratory as well as the playing field, Dr. Austin has celebrated numerous athletic championships as well as the individual accomplishments of hundreds of student-athletes at UConn. He played a vital role in the passage of legislation that led to the construction of Rentschler Field that became the home for University of Connecticut football this past fall. The UConn Club honored him with its Crystal Award in the spring of 2003.

Prior to his appointment at UConn, Dr. Austin was chancellor of the University of Alabama System, president of Colorado State University, chancellor of the Colorado State University System, provost and vice president for academic affairs and professor of economics and finance at Bernard Baruch College in New York City. He was previously director of the interdisciplinary doctoral program in public policy at George Washington University in Washington, D.C.

From 1974 to 1977, Dr. Austin was HEW Deputy Assistant Secretary for Education in Washington, D.C. During the latter part of this assignment, he also served as Acting Assistant Secretary for Education. He served as an Economist in the Director's Office of the U.S. Office of Management and Budget from 1971 to 1974.

Dr. Austin's service in the United States Army extended from 1969-1971. He was an Economist with the rank of Army Captain in the Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Economic Affairs at U. S. Military Headquarters in Saigon, Vietnam. He was awarded the Bronze Star, the Joint Service Commendation Medal, and the Army Commendation Medal during his military duty.

He holds a Ph.D. in economics from Michigan State University and is active in several national professional associations. He serves on the Board of Directors of the MetroHartford Regional Economic Alliance, Connecticut United for Research Excellence, Inc. (CURE), the Greater Hartford Area Millenium Management Board of Directors and on the Governor's Council on Economic Competitiveness and Technology.

Campaign UConn, the University's six-year $300 million capital campaign, is in full swing, and the Division of Athletics is a major part of it. The Athletic Capital Campaign is seeking to raise $52 million. Of these funds, $13 million will be directed toward facility construction and enhancement, and $39 million toward endowments and ongoing program support. A breakdown of the Capital Campaign Goals for UConn Athletics are listed and pictured across these two facing pages.

Burton Family Football Complex

To succeed at the Division I-A level, the University's football program must become nationally competitive. A first-class on-campus football support building will definitely help put the program on the national map. The new facility will stand where the existing football facility — Memorial Stadium. The new structure will measure approximately 43,000 square feet and contain lockerrooms for players and coaches, coaches' offices, position meeting rooms, a large auditorium and an audio/video area. A gift of $2.5 million was given to UConn this past spring by Robert G. Burton for the construction of this facility.

Harry A. Gampel Pavilion Enhancements

Pictured below are the entrances to the newly-renovated basketball complex in the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion.

The University of Connecticut has won five NCAA Division I national championships in the sport of basketball (men in 1999 and women in 1995, 2000, 2002, 2003). To maintain and enhance the level of excellence established by both programs, the Division of Athletics is continuing to renovate and upgrade the locker rooms, coaches' office complex and team meeting rooms in the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion. These infrastructure renovations centered on improvements necessary to keep UConn basketball in the national spotlight.

Endowed Scholarships

Endowed scholarships provide permanent and reliable funding and allows the Division of Athletics to recruit the finest student athletes in the country. Contributions to endowments are matched (50 cents for each dollar) by the State of Connecticut's UCONN 2000 program.

Endowed Coaching Positions

Coaching stability is the hallmark of almost every successful athletics program, and it has certainly contributed the phenomenal success of University of Connecticut. Contributions to our Endowed Coaching Positions program will allow the University to hire and retain the very best coaches, assistant coaches and graduate assistants. Methods of giving for Campaign UConn are varied and include various types of life income gifts. Most campaign gifts can be pledged over a five-year period. Naming opportunities are available for UConn Campaign facilities as well as other existing on-campus athletic facilities.

UConn has added three women's varsity sports in the past five years, including the sports of women's lacrosse and women's rowing.

Top Ten Reasons to Attend UConn

Ranked the top public university in New England.
For the fifth consecutive year, U.S. News and World Report ranked UConn the top public university in New England and among the top 25 public universities in the nation.
And the 2003 Fiske Guide to Colleges called UConn, "a comprehensive university offering a vast selection of academic programs as well as opportunities to study abroad, participate in research, or join one of the 250 organizations or clubs available."
Bolstered by this national recognition and academic prestige, the value of a UConn degree continues to soar upward.

The Right Fit
More than 70% of your classes will have fewer than 30 students. Our student/faculty ratio is 17-1, and our 14,700 undergraduate students receive personal attention and feel a strong sense of community and belonging. Just the right size, UConn also offers the opportunities of a premier research university, such as hands-on experience working in labs with professors who not only teach your courses but who also are on the cutting edge of innovation and discovery.

Unlimited Opportunities for Involvement
Yoga. UConnTV. Fraternities and sororities. Student Film Organization. Marching band. Finance Society. Puppet club. Skydiving. Dance Team. Tutoring inner-city school kids. Helping out in local soup kitchens. Choosing from more than 250 clubs and volunteer organizations, UConn students actively participate in campus life. As leaders of these diverse organizations, our students make governing decisions, plan events, organize intramural teams, and run their own radio shows.

21st Century Amenities
This is a tremendously exciting time to attend UConn. A $2.3 billion landmark building program is dramatically transforming the places where students live, learn, and enjoy life. Through new construction and renovation, we offer the latest innovations nationally in university housing and dining and the best-equipped recreational complexes. Classrooms and laboratories are being built at a remarkable rate, placing our facilities at the forefront of public higher education and propelling UConn to a position of national prominence.

Outstanding Faculty
From writers to scientists to human rights activists, our nearly 1,200 faculty members are committed to classroom teaching. Fostering a dynamic learning environment, they share research opportunities with high achieving students in the Honors Program and serve as advisors to all undergraduates. It is professors like Regina Barreca, whose humor appears in nationally published columns, and Ben Bahr, whose revolutionary research may unlock the mysteries of Alzheimer's disease, and Amii Omara-Otunnu, who provides pivotal leadership for the UConn-African National Congress Partnership, that inspire the minds of emerging scholars.

Top Ten Reasons to Attend UConn

Most of our Students Live on Campus in Storrs

UConn has the highest percentage of students living on campus of any public university in the United States. Students walk to classes or ride the University shuttle buses. Residential life at UConn offers a distinct sense of community, as well as many social and cultural opportunities. We offer new students a range of dining options and accommodations, while offering continuing students the latest in suite-style and apartment living. Residence halls also have study rooms, 24-hour computer labs, and lounge areas to help students relax and feel right at home.

100-plus Majors Available to You

The choice is yours. Whether it's Education, Engineering, English or Environmental Science, UConn has a program for you. Select an established major or design an individualized plan of study to meet your specific needs. In addition to academic advisors, online study tools, and tutorial centers, UConn offers career counseling workshops, study abroad programs in over 40 countries, and many internship programs to help you gain valuable experience. Diverse enough to offer you a lot of academic choices, UConn also provides the support to help you achieve your goals.

An Exceptional Educational Value

Whether your long-range goal is to prepare for a career, pursue a graduate degree, or attend medical or law school, UConn is an exceptional educational value. UConn has a variety of programs to help many students financially, ranging from merit scholarship opportunities to need-based financial aid packages, all designed to support a large number of qualified students. And even if you just want to earn some extra spending money or build your resume with some hands-on work experience, there are many part-time jobs with flexible hours right on campus.

Location. Location. Location

As close or as far from home as you want it to be-our main campus is about 30 minutes from Hartford and within driving distance of New York City, Boston, and Providence. Whether it's the vibrant main campus in Storrs or one of our unique regional campuses in Avery Point, West Hartford, Stamford, Torrington, or Waterbury, across Connecticut UConn offers a quality education to meet your distinct needs.

Huskymania

Division I in all sports, we have a variety of men's and women's varsity athletics, including: baseball, basketball, cross country, field hockey, football, golf, ice hockey, lacrosse, rowing, softball, soccer, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor and outdoor track, and volleyball. So whether you're an all-star player or a Husky fan, UConn is the home of Huskymania capturing five NCAA national championships in the last five years. Capping a nearly perfect 37-1 season, the 2002-03 women's basketball team won their fourth Division I crown, a standard of excellence that carries on to the gridiron as UConn football continues the winning tradition before 40,000 roaring fans at ultra-modern Rentschler Field.

THE UNIVERSITY OF CONNECTICUT WELCOMES YOU

As New England's top ranked public university, UConn is innovating classroom instruction, advancing academic research and scholarship, enriching the quality of student life, expanding access to services and—most visibly—transforming facilities on its campuses. Record numbers of high-achieving students from diverse backgrounds are making the University of Connecticut their school of choice. University life includes more than 250 clubs and organizations, a full complement of intramural and intercollegiate sports, and cultural programs in the visual, literary and performing arts. UConn is also in the forefront of interdisciplinary enrichment in the form of championship Husky athletic teams.

At UConn's main campus in Storrs and at our five regional campuses across the state, world-class faculty employ state-of-the-art technologies to create remarkable teaching and research environments. What's more, UConn is the only public university in New England that has its own schools of law, medicine, dental medicine and social work.

UConn is renewing, rebuilding and enhancing its facilities through UCONN 2000 and 21st Century UConn, an unprecedented $2.3 billion, 20-year state investment in the University's infrastructure. The most ambitious publicly financed university building program in the country, UCONN 2000/21st Century UConn reflects a vision of a dynamic institution.

Founded in 1881, UConn now encompasses 17 Schools and Colleges, and enrolls 26,000 students representing every state in the nation and more than 100 countries. As we move forward with business, government, and elementary and secondary education, the University of Connecticut enhances the culture, quality of life, and economic vitality of Connecticut, the nation, and the world.

State of Connecticut

Within its compact borders, Connecticut has forested hills, new urban skylines, shoreline beaches, white-steeple colonial churches, and historic village greens. There are classic universities, modern expressways, great corporate offices and small farms.

Connecticut is a thriving center of business, as well as a vacation land. It is both a New England state and suburban to New York City.

Today's Connecticut is more exciting and more impressive than ever. Venture capitalists invested a record $1.8 billion in Connecticut companies in 2000 — more than double the previous year. Connecticut ranks third nationally in percentage of residents with college degrees and the state is ranked fifth in the nation in share of employment in information technology industries. Connecticut's manufacturing workforce ranks second in the nation in productivity and independent studies ranked Connecticut among the top five states in ability to excel in the New Economy.

Connecticut is ranked third in percentage of postal zones with high-speed internet access and is among the top 10 states in the percentage of workers and businesses in the high-tech industries.Included among the residents of Connecticut are 90,000 alumni of the University of Connecticut, most of whom are part of the ever-growing "Huskymania" fever which has swept through the state in recent years. Indeed, many state residents believe that UConn, and its athletic success, is perhaps one of Connecticut's greatest natural resources.

The Connecticut Yankee has long been a symbol of ingenuity and inventiveness. These qualities have been matched by production skills since the earliest days. From colonial times, Connecticut has been predominantly a manufacturing state and a world leader in industrial development.

When Connecticut was still a colony, her factories were already important enough to draw angry complaints from competitors in England. Connecticut metal buttons were replacing the imported product and were providing the start of Connecticut's great brass industry. Connecticut is often described as the "Arsenal of the Nation." It gained this reputation as early as the American Revolution. Early in the 19th century, Eli Whitney and Simeon North began making Connecticut firearms with interchangeable parts. This is generally recognized as the beginning of modern mass production.

Through the years, Connecticut industrial genius has given the world such varied inventions as vulcanized rubber, friction matches, sewing machines, steamboats, safety fuses, lollipops, cork screws, mechanical calculators, cylindrical locks and the submarine.

Today, Connecticut's manufacturing industry continues to be highly diversified. Jet aircraft engines, helicopters and nuclear submarines have given the state pre-eminence in the production of transportation equipment. Connecticut also is a leader in such highly skilled and technical fields as metalworking, electronics and plastics. This sort of creativity has made a significant contribution to Connecticut's standard of life — its living qualities. For more than 50 years these qualities have been judged to be the nation's finest. In turn, they are responsible, in large part, for the influx of major corporate offices. Connecticut is now the home of such world-wide organizations as Xerox, General Electric, Uniroyal, GTE, Olin, Champion International, and Union Carbide.

Among its better-known corporate industries, however are its insurance companies. Connecticut began to earn its reputation as the Insurance State more than 180 years ago. Marine insurance, the great grandfather of all modern forms of insurance, had its start in Connecticut with coverage for ships and cargoes, which sailed from the state's ocean and river ports to the Caribbean. Fire insurance got its formal start in 1794; other types — life, accident, casualty, health — followed over the next century. There are 106 insurance companies based in Connecticut.

While agriculture no longer holds its once-prominent position in Connecticut's economy, farming is still important to the state. The most important crops are dairy, poultry, forest and nursery, tobacco, vegetables and fruit.

Connecticut is New England's second smallest and southernmost state. Its 5,009 square miles (13,023 square kilometers) are bordered by New York State on the west, Rhode Island on the east, Massachusetts on the north and by Long Island sound on the south.

The southerly flow of the Connecticut River divides the state roughly in half. The coastal plain and central valley are relatively flat; they contain most of the larger cities. Other parts of the state are hilly, with the highest altitudes in the northwest corner. Hills are largely covered with hardwood forests, and about two-thirds of the state is in open land.

Despite New England's reputation for a rugged climate, Connecticut's weather is relatively mild. On the average, there are only 12 days a year when the temperature goes above 90 degrees, and about six days when it falls to zero or below. The growing season is fairly long, with the first killing frost generally in mid-October and the last in mid-April. This, together with moderate rainfall, provides good growing conditions. Despite Connecticut's small size, there is some variety in climate, with temperatures in the northern hills as much as 10 degrees lower than those in the central valley year-round.

Tourism (http://www.tourism.state.ct.us/) in Connecticut is a $4 billion-a-year business. Much of it based on the attraction of the state's 250-mile Long Island Sound shoreline, its rolling Litchfield Hills, and its unspoiled Connecticut River Valley.

With its wealth of open land, Connecticut's scenery is some of New England's most beautiful. Its scores of Colonial villages are filled with historic homes and landmarks. Dozens of golf courses are open to the public; boating, fishing and swimming opportunities are everywhere.

Among the most popular individual attractions are Mystic Seaport and nearby Mystic Marinelife Aquarium; Lake Compounce, Bristol; Nautilus Memorial, Groton; Gillette Castle, Hadlyme; Valley Railroad, Essex; New-Gate Prison, East Granby; Branford Trolley Museum, East Haven; Connecticut river cruise ships; and the homes of Mark Twain and Harriet Beecher Stowe, Hartford.

Connecticut also offers a wealth of cultural attractions-theater, opera, ballet, concerts, and a number of nationally ranked museums and art galleries.

While Connecticut was first explored by the Dutch, who founded trading posts, the first permanent settlements were made by English Puritans from Massachusetts, starting in 1633.

From the first, Connecticut enjoyed a great measure of political independence, proclaiming in its Fundamental Orders of 1639 a democratic principle of government based on the will of the people. These Fundamental Orders are said to have been the first written Constitution of a democratic government; that's why Connecticut today is nicknamed "The Constitution State."

Agriculture and trade were primary activities of 17th century colonists, but because of limited land Connecticut people quickly turned to manufacturing.

During the American Revolution, Connecticut gave freely of her blood and wealth. Her soldiers were on the battle line from Quebec to Carolina. It was General Israel Putnam at the battle of Bunker Hill who cried: "Don't fire until you see the whites of their eyes!" Patriot-spy Nathan Hale, as he was about to be hanged by the British, said: "I regret that I have but one life to lose for my country."

To George Washington, Connecticut was "The Provision State" because of supplies contributed to his army by Gov. Jonathan Trumbull — the only Colonial governor, incidentally, to support the cause of America's independence from Great Britain.

From 1703 to 1875, Connecticut had two capitals; sessions of the General Assembly met alternately in Hartford and New Haven. Since then, the capital has been Hartford.

State government in Connecticut has three branches: executive (exec.htm), legislative (http://www.cga.state.ct.us) and judicial (http://www.jud.state.ct.us).

Voters elect six state officers: Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Treasurer, Comptroller and Attorney General. All have four year terms. Connecticut voters also elect two U.S. Senators and six U.S. Representatives.

The General Assembly or legislature has a Senate and a House of Representatives. Members of both houses represent districts based strictly on population. Currently, there are 36 state senators and 151 state representatives.

The Judicial Department is composed of the Superior, Appellate and Supreme courts. Except for probate judges, who are elected by the voters of the town or district they serve, all judges are nominated by the governor and appointed by the General Assembly.

City of Hartford

It has long been known as the "Insurance Capital of the World" and it serves as a daily busy hub for some of the most dynamic corporations in the nation. For many years, it has served as the home-away-from-home for the UConn men's and women's basketball teams. And, starting this year it is the home of UConn football at Rentschler Field.

The City of Hartford and the Greater Hartford region is known worldwide for its innovative, high technology industries as well as for its leadership in the insurance industry. Hartford currently sports a strong foothold in the international marketplace and is broadening that foothold in order to ensure the region's economic growth well into the 21st century.

One reason the Greater Hartford area is doing so well in the international marketplace is that advanced, high-tech products are in demand worldwide. These projects include jet engines and other aerospace products manufactured by Pratt and Whitney Aircraft, a subsidiary of Hartford's United Technology Corporation, Kaman Corporation, Chandler Evans Control Systems and other companies. Additional high-technology products that are being exported from the Hartford area include fiber optics from Ensign-Bickford and chemicals from Loctite Corporation.

For generations, the title of "Insurance Capital of the World" has been part of the background of Hartford, and for good reason. Insurance got its start in the Hartford area in the late 1700's when trade merchants needed to cover the risks of piracy and ocean storms. Among the prominent insurance executives of the 1800s were James G. Batterson, who founded The Travelers Co., and Morgan G. Bulkeley, a president of Aetna Life and Casualty.

Today, seven insurance giants have their corporate headquarters in the Greater Hartford area: Aetna Life and Casualty, The Travelers Insurance Company, Connecticut Home Life Insurance Company, ITT/Hartford Insurance Group, CIGNA Corporation, Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Company, and Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company. The major accounting firms are also represented in the region.

With its insurance companies and its numerous banks serving as a core of economic success, the City of Hartford is the fifth largest financial center in the entire country.

Hartford is in the midst of a major revitalization, which includes the Adriaen's Landing riverfront development, the largest convention center between New York City and Boston and shops, restaurants and residences.

Serving as Connecticut's state capital, the City of Hartford is located in central Connecticut The Connecticut River borders the City of Hartford to the east, and Hartford's 18 square mile area rests entirely within the river valley. Terrain is gently rolling with extensive level areas and elevations range from near sea level to 190 feet above.

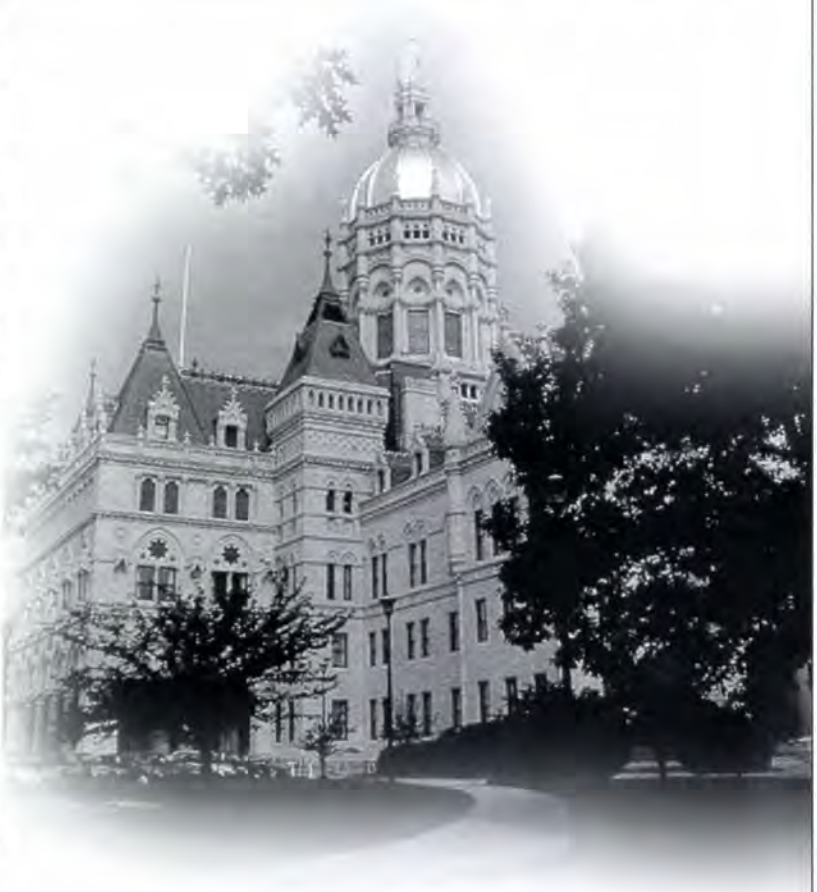
The artistic wealth and diversity of Hartford is portrayed in many ways-from its base as a home of an art museum of major significance (the Athenaeum), to a nationally recognized theater company (the Tony Award-winning Hartford Stage Company), to first-rate symphony, ballet and opera companies (respectively, the Hartford Symphony, the Hartford Ballet and the Connecticut Opera).



The region has a strong historical relationship with literature. Perhaps its best known author-in-residence was Mark Twain, who wrote several of his most famous works here, including Huckleberry Finn. Twain's Hartford mansion, along with that of his neighbor Harriet Beecher Stowe, are open to the public. One of the hubs of downtown activity in Hartford is the Hartford Civic Center, which serves as another home for the University of Connecticut men's and women's basketball programs. The Civic Center is also the home facility for the Hartford Wolfpack of the American Hockey League.

Each year the finest golfers in the world compete at the PGA Tour's Greater Hartford Open, which is played at Cromwell's Tournament Players Club at River Highlands.

The greater Hartford landscape gained a major addition in the August of 2003 when UConn football moved into its new $90 million stadium — Rentschler Field in East Hartford. The 40,000-seat open air stadium provides the state of Connecticut with a state-of-the-art facility in which the UConn Football program will compete at the major college level as a member of the BIG EAST Conference.

BIG EAST Coach of the Year

It was a time for champions.

The University of Connecticut Division of Athletics experienced another outstanding year in 2002-03 as Husky student-athletes excelled on the playing fields, in the classroom and in the community.

For the fifth-straight year, UConn won another NCAA Division I Championship as the women's basketball team rolled to their second-straight national title. UConn also won the 2000 and 2002 NCAA titles in women's basketball, the 1999 NCAA men's basketball championship and the 2000 men's soccer title.

The development of the University of Connecticut into one of the nation's finest institutions has been mirrored by the growth of its Division of Athletics.

As UConn has grown from its roots in 1881 to the national university that it is today, athletics at the school have become a broad-based program of 24 intercollegiate teams.

UConn had five teams advance to NCAA Championship play in men's and women's basketball, men's and woman's soccer and field hockey. Individuals from UConn's women's indoor track and field, men's outdoor track and field and women's swimming and diving teams also took part in NCAA Championships.

In addition to the women's basketball team winning the national title, the men's and women's soccer teams both advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals while the men's basketball team earned a spot in the NCAA Sweet 16.

UConn won the BIG EAST regular season championship in field hockey, women's basketball, men's basketball (East Division) and women's soccer (Northeast Division).

The Huskies also won BIG EAST tournament titles in field hockey and women's soccer.

The UConn men's indoor track and field team won the New England Championship for the tenth consecutive year while the women's team won the New Englands for the fourth-straight time.

The Huskies had 12 student-athletes earn All-America honors (Kelly Cochrane and Lauren Henderson in field hockey, Mike Deibler, Joe Mendel, Paul Pisano and Will Thomas in men's outdoor track and field, Deidre Mullen in women's indoor track and field, Emeka Okafor in men's basketball, Sarah Popper in women's soccer, Diana Taurasi in women's basketball and Shavar Thomas and Damani Ralph in men's soccer).

Taurasi was the consensus national player of the year in women's basketball while her coach, Geno Auriemma, was the Associated Press and United States Basketball Writers Association national coach of the year. Auriemma and field hockey coach Nancy Stevens were honored as BIG EAST coaches of the year.

Three Husky student-athletes also earned Academic All-America honors as Okafor was selected in men's basketball, Kate Foley was selected in women's soccer and Deibler was second team in men's track and field. Okafor was also named the BIG EAST Aeropostale Scholar-Athlete of the Year for men's basketball.

The UConn football team, which posted a 6-6 record in its first year as a fully-scholarshiped Division I-A program, was honored for its academic excellence. UConn was among seven schools – and the only state institution – to be selected by the American Football Coaches Association and its Academic Achievement Award program for a graduation rate of 90 percent of better for the freshman class of 1997-98.

The UConn women's lacrosse team was honored by the Intercollegiate Women's Lacrosse Coaches Association for having the second-highest team grade point average in the country behind only Stanford.

The Division of Athletics also includes the Department of Recreational Services – "the largest classroom on campus." The department offers a number of activities for the University community, ranging from intramural sports, aerobic and fitness classes to stations for individual workouts.

A Husky Tradition of Excellence

In the UConn Division of Athletics, there is a saying: "If we're not going to do it the right way, we are not going to do it at all."

That's the attitude when in comes to anything that happens in the Division from its administrators, coaches and student-athletes. There's a tradition of excellence at UConn that is fostered on a continual basis.

The Huskies have won six NCAA national championships since 1990 – four in women's basketball and one each in men's basketball and men's soccer. UConn has made NCAA semifinal appearances nine other times during that period – including three in women's basketball, three in women's soccer, two in field hockey and one in men's soccer.

In total, UConn teams have advanced to NCAA Championship play 60 times since 1990-91 while Husky student-athletes have garnered All-America honors 131 times.

UConn teams have also won 37 BIG EAST Conference regular season championships during that time and 33 BIG EAST Tournament titles.

None of this success is possible without great leaders and UConn has had five different head coaches recognized as national coaches of the year in the past 12 years – Geno Auriemma of women's basketball, Jim Calhoun of men's basketball, Ray Reid of men's soccer, Len Tsantiris of women's soccer and Bruce Marshall of men's ice hockey.

The Division of Athletics – which now boasts of over 150 full-time employees – strives to help the University of Connecticut grow, develop and improve each and every day.

Huskies in the Red, White and Blue

University of Connecticut coaches and student-athletes have a long tradition of representing the United States on national teams. Participation on a national squad is not only a tremendous honor and privilege, it also offers the opportunity to compete against the best in the world

The women's basketball team at UConn was most recently represented in international action this past summer when Ann Strother and Barbara Turner played for the United States National Team in the Pan American Games and won a silver medal. In addition, former Huskies Rebecca Lobo and Kara Wolters have won Olympic gold medals for the United States and Nykesha Sales was an Olympic alternate. UConn head coach Geno Auriemma was on the coaching staff for the 2000 gold medal winning team.

UConn has also had a national presence in many other sports. In men's basketball, former Husky Ray Allen has played on three different United States national teams and won a gold medal at the 2000 Olympics. Emeka Okafor and Ben Gordon both represented the United States last summer at the Pan American games.

In women's soccer, Sara Whalen was a member of the World Cup championship team in 1988 and won a silver medal at the 2000 Olympics.

Baseball player Charles Nagy was a member of the 1988 gold-medal winning Olympic team while Husky athletes have been named to United States Olympic squads in men's soccer, men's track and field and women's field hockey.

In coaching, former UConn head baseball coach Andy Baylock served on a number of national teams staffs while women's lacrosse head coach Bonnie Rosen continues to play for the United States national team. Special adviser to athletics Dee Rowe was also a member of an Olympic men's basketball coaching staff.

Huskies in the Pros

University of Connecticut student-athletes have been making the successful transition to a number of different professional sports for decades.

The UConn women's basketball program has been a staple in sending players to the Women's National Basketball Association with a total of 16 former Huskies that have seen league action, including Swin Cash, Nykesha Sales and Sue Bird who were all named to the WNBA all-star game.

UConn has sent a tremendous number of players to the National Basketball Association in recent years. These pros include Ray Allen, a three-time NBA all-star who is now a member of the Seattle SuperSonics, and Scott Burrell, who earned an NBA Championship ring with the Chicago Bulls in 1997.

In football, Brian Kozlowski played his 10th season in the National Football League in 2003 as a member of the Atlanta Falcons and participated in the Super Bowl for Atlanta in 1999. Nick Giaquinto played in two Super Bowls as a member of the Washington Redskins, including the 1983 championship squad.

One of UConn's first pros was Walt Dropo, who had opportunities in professional football, basketball and baseball and wound up earning 1950 American League Rookie of the Year honors with the Boston Red Sox. UConn's Charles Nagy also enjoyed a stellar professional baseball career with the Cleveland Indians. He was a two-time all-star and pitched in the 1997 World Series.

UConn has also sent stars to the Major League Soccer, where former Husky stars Damani Ralph and Chris Gbandi are among the league's finest players.

In ice hockey, Brian Krygier enjoyed a career with the National Hockey League's Hartford Whalers and Washington Capitals in the early 1990's.

J. Robert Donnelly Museum

The sights and sounds of more than a century of intercollegiate athletics competition come alive during a visit to the J. Robert Donnelly Husky Heritage Sports Museum.

Located in the new and expanded UConn Alumni Center in the heart of the University of Connecticut's main campus in Storrs, the Husky Heritage Sports Museum is the ultimate library documenting the wide-ranging successes of Connecticut's athletic programs.

The state-of-the-art design and layout of the new 2,700 square foot Husky Heritage Sports Museum, named after benefactor and 1940 Connecticut basketball and football captain J. Robert (Bob) Donnelly, vividly captures all of the energy, excitement and enthusiasm that is associated with "Huskymania".

Benefactor and 1940 UConn basketball and football captain Bob Donnelly and his wife M.J. at the dedication of the J. Robert Donnelly Husky Heritage Sports Museum.

The visitors' UConn experience begins once they enter the museum and are greeted by a full figure statue of Jonathan, the legendary mascot of all Husky athletic teams.

Oversized banners proudly hang from the ceiling, displaying action images that feature 88 of Connecticut's All-American stars representing 17 different intercollegiate sports.

A tour of the various sections of the Husky Heritage Sports Museum is a walk down memory lane for long-time followers of Connecticut athletics. For fans just becoming acquainted with UConn's tradition of excellence, the various themes and areas of the museum, when woven together, narrate a complete and compelling sport-by-sport story line. The growth and development of Connecticut athletics is traced via text, photographs and select artifacts from its humble beginnings in the 1890s to its present day ranking among the elite major college athletic programs in the nation.

Included among the "must see" memorabilia in the Husky Heritage Sports Museum main concourse are the 1981 and 2000 NCAA National Championship Men's Soccer trophies; the 1981 and 1985 NCAA National Championship Women's Field Hockey trophies; the 1950s era baseball gloves belonging to Connecticut's three Dropo brothers—including Walt Dropo's first baseman's mitt when he was the American League Rookie of the Year with the Boston Red Sox in 1950; the 1935 Ramnapping Trophy, awarding annually to the winner of the Connecticut-Rhode Island football game; a 1931 football signed by the entire Connecticut squad; team photos of Connecticut's first men's (1901) and women's (1902) basketball squads; and the Waterford Crystal NCAA National Championship trophies won by UConn Women's Basketball (1995, 2000, 2002, 2003) and UConn Men's Basketball (1999).

The pinnacle achievement of UConn's four NCAA National Championships in both men's and women's basketball is preserved and promoted in a unique circular sanctuary—the Connecticut Basketball Rotunda.

Championship trophies and related artifacts that chronicle UConn's men's and women's national titles are prominently featured in the rotunda, as are life-size cutouts of Husky All-American stars Ray Allen and Rebecca Lobo. Celebratory paintings of head coaches Jim Calhoun and Geno Auriemma are on display along with a one-of-a-kind watercolor team photo of the 25-member UConn Men's Basketball All-Century team.

Also within the Connecticut Basketball experience is a six-screen continuing video presentation offering behind-the-scenes looks at various UConn Athletics "winning moments" as captured on a variety of Husky highlight films and documentaries.

Each display case of memorabilia and every historical photograph located within the walls of the J. Robert Donnelly Husky Heritage Sports Museum describe a portion of a truly remarkable story.

That story of the teams, the coaches, and student-athletes who have been part of the rich history that constitutes the Connecticut athletic experience is now being told on a daily basis at UConn's Husky Heritage Sports Museum.

Since the Husky Heritage Sports Museum opened in January of 2002, several important artifacts have been donated from UConn loyalists to help expand the scope of the Connecticut Athletics storyline – including a 1952 Varsity "C" Letter Jacket from former football captain Rocco Murano and the Varsity Letter Sweater of legendary Husky men's basketball coach Hugh Greer's that was presented by his son Scott Greer.

Anyone wishing to donate specific Connecticut Athletics memorabilia to the J. Robert Donnelly Husky Heritage Sports Museum should contact Tim Tolokan, Associate Director of Athletics, at (860) 486-9097.

Director of Athletics Jeffrey A. Hathaway

Jeffrey Hathaway was named the new Director of Athletics at the University of Connecticut on June 10, 2003, but he's far from a stranger on the Storrs campus.

Hathaway was the Executive Associate Athletic Director at UConn from 1990-2001 before serving as the Director of Athletics at Colorado State University for the past two years.

During Hathaway's career, he has always made the student-athlete the top priority.

"My focus is on the student-athlete," says Hathaway. "That's the most important part of our program. There always will be the primary concern of the continued academic success of our student-athletes. The challenge is to identify people early in the process and assist them in charting a career path. In addition, our mission is to provide a quality experience in intercollegiate athletics for our student-athletes."

Hathaway originally came to Connecticut in November of 1990 as Senior Associate Athletic Director. In that role, he oversaw the day-to-day operations of the Division of Athletics.

He also served internally as a program administrator for several sports, including men's and women's basketball and men's and women's soccer at UConn as the Huskies won four national championships in those sports during his tenure – two in women's basketball (1995 and 2000) and one each in men's basketball (1999) and men's soccer (2000).

Hathaway was the program administrator for football and he played a key role in the upgrade of UConn's football program to Division I-A status and the building of Rentschler Field.

"We are very happy to welcome Jeff Hathaway home," said UConn President Philip E. Austin. "Jeff knows the University of Connecticut and has the respect of our coaches and Division of Athletics staff. He has achieved outstanding success at Colorado State and that extra dimension of leadership experience only adds to an outstanding set of credentials."

During Hathaway's tenure at Colorado State, he oversaw a 15-sport program – nine women's teams and six men's.

The Ram football team made a pair of bowl appearances while Hathaway was at CSU. The men's basketball team won the Mountain West Conference tournament this past March and advanced to the NCAA tournament for the first time in 13 years. The women's basketball team advanced to postseason play for the past two seasons, including a trip to the second round of the NCAA tournament in 2002 and the semifinals of the 2003 Women's NIT. A total of four Ram teams won Mountain West championships during 2002-03 and seven took part in postseason play.

Hathaway has been an extremely successful fundraiser during his time in Fort Collins. The school drew national attention last spring for a $15.2 million gift from the Bohemian Foundation and president Pat Stryker for football stadium renovations and expansion.

Hathaway represented the Mountain West Conference on the NCAA Division I Championships/Competition Cabinet, as well as the Football Certification Subcommittee, which is responsible for issues involving postseason football competition and the certification of bowl games.

Prior to his first stint at UConn, Hathaway served in a number of capacities at his alma mater – the University of Maryland – from 1982-90, including Assistant Athletics Director for Marketing and Promotions, Acting Assistant Athletics Director for Business Affairs, Athletics Business Manager and men's basketball trainer.

Football head coach Randy Edsall, women's basketball head coach Geno Auriemma, Director of Athletics Jeffrey Hathaway, University President Philip E. Austin and men's basketball head coach Jim Calhoun.

Hathaway earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Athletic Administration from the University of Maryland in 1981. He later received a Master's Degree in General Administration (1991) from the University of Maryland and is currently continuing work on a PhD in Educational Leadership from the University of Connecticut.

He attended The Sports Management Institute at the Universities of Notre Dame and Southern California. Hathaway also completed the Management Development Program at Harvard University.

Born June 20, 1959, in Cheverly, Md., Hathaway and his wife Paula have two children: Meghan (October 15, 1991) and Michael (June 11, 1995).

UNIVERSITY OF CONNECTICUT
DIVISION OF ATHLETICS MISSION STATEMENT

In conjunction with the mission of the University of Connecticut to serve as a center for teaching and research, dedicated to excellence in higher education and fulfillment of its land grant status, the mission of the Division of Athletics is to operate a broad-based program of intercollegiate athletics and recreational and intramural sports opportunities that reflects the ethical philosophy of the University, the interests of the student body, and the desires of the University's internal and external constituencies.

The priority of the Division of Athletics is to give students the opportunity to excel in academic achievement and athletic accomplishments. In addition, the Division of Athletics fosters among its students a sense of citizenship, leadership and social responsibility.

The athletic program of the University adheres to the highest standards of integrity and ethics. The Division of Athletics promotes principles of good sportsmanship, honesty and fiscal responsibility in compliance with university, state, NCAA, and conference regulations.The Division of Athletics promotes and supports the University's comprehensive commitment to diversity and equity, providing equitable opportunity for all students and staff, including women and minorities.

Through its program of intercollegiate athletics, recreational and intramural activities, public service and outreach efforts, the Division of Athletics enhances the student experience and contributes to the quality of life within the campus community, the State, and across the nation.

The Division of Athletics and its programs undergo regular and periodic evaluation so that the Division may remain responsive to the educational and social needs of its students, the outreach efforts of the University, the competitive standards of the athletic conferences with which it is affiliated, and the fiscal demands of rapidly changing environments.

Counseling Program for Intercollegiate Athletes

Bruce Cohen
CPIA Director

The University of Connecticut is committed to each of its basketball players, and all of its student-athletes, as a total person. Participation in athletics is important, but it represents only one aspect of a basketball player's college experience. At the University of Connecticut, academic achievement is the primary concern. Impressively, for the past four years the Connecticut student-athlete retention rate has been 99.0 percent.

The University's commitment to the student-athlete is a dual one. Participation on the basketball court is not viewed as an obstacle to the attainment of one's educational goals, rather it is seen as a complementary activity. Each supports the other. Athletic excellence is stressed, but academic achievement is never compromised - indeed, it is given the utmost priority.

The University realizes that basketball players and all student-athletes, due to their academic involvement, are required to commit a large percentage of their personal time to University sponsored athletic activities. For this reason, the University recognizes the need for a support program for its intercollegiate athletes. The Counseling Program for Intercollegiate Athletes (CPIA) constantly assists all student-athletes in achieving their academic goals. The CPIA staff serves as a liaison to the academic faculty, the Division of Athletics, and the student-athlete.

In serving as a liaison between the Connecticut student-athletes and University faculty and staff, the CPIA counselors also provide assistance in securing appropriate support services available with the University. These include orientation for student-athletes, supervised study halls, individual tutors and tutorial centers (an English/Writing Center, Math Center and Reading Center) and learning skills seminars.

For the past six years, the writing lab and computers have been networked to a national database which allow all student-athletes to do research at their actual computer stations.

A counselor is assigned to work with each intercollegiate team and working directly with the UConn women's basketball program as a Faculty Advisor within CPIA is Bruce Cohen, Director of the Counseling Program for Intercollegiate Athletes.

Cohen monitors all aspects of each UConn basketball player's academic life, including class schedule, arranging for tutors and progress toward a degree. The goal for each Husky basketball student-athlete is to earn a degree so she can become a success in whatever field she chooses. The study lab used by the UConn women's basketball team is located adjacent to the Alumni Court in the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion.

23 Different Dean's List Student-Athletes Over the Past 12 seasons

During the past 12 seasons (1991-1992 through 2002-03), the Connecticut women's basketball program has established a lofty standard in the classroom which matches the outstanding on-court success of the Huskies.

In that 12 year span, 23 different players have attained Dean's List status a total of 41 times while playing basketball at UConn.

Department of Sports Medicine

Rosemary Ragle
Athletic Trainer/
Women's Basketball

The Department of Sports Medicine in the University of Connecticut Division of Athletics works as an integrated multidisciplinary team whose purpose is to provide the optimal, safe environment for the basketball student-athletes to train and participate in their sport. The staff takes great pride in the individual attention paid to each student-athlete. They are devoted to preventing injury, rapidly diagnosing and treating injury, and maximizing athletic performance. The disciplines of athletic training, strength and conditioning, sports medicine, orthopaedic sports medicine, optometry, nutrition, exercise physiology, and psychology work in concert to provide comprehensive care for the basketball student-athlete.

The team is spearheaded by Rosemart Ragle, MS, ATC, the women's basketball Athletic Trainer and Assistant Athletic Trainer. Physician coverage is led by Jeffrey Anderson, M.D., the Director of Sports Medicine and Team Physician Thomas Trojian, M.D.. The Orthopaedic Sports Medicine Specialists for the team include Edward Collins M.D. and Michael Joyce M.D. of the Connecticut Sports Medicine and Orthopaedic Center in Willimantic, Barry Messinger M.D. of Sports Medicine and Orthopaedic Surgery in Manchester, and Robert Arciero M.D. and Kevin Shea M.D. of the University of Connecticut Health Center Department of Orthopaedics in Farmington.

The Department of Sports Medicine works intimately with the Departments of Kinesiology and Nutritional Sciences on the University of Connecticut campus. This affords the student-athletes with the input of several nationally recognized exercise scientists. This cooperation also keeps the sports medicine staff at the cutting edge of developments in the fields of human performance and sports nutrition. Members of the sports medicine staff are actively engaged in research that directly benefits the care of the basketball student-athletes.

The UConn Basketball Sports Medicine team is housed in brand new state-of-the-art facilities in the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion, which were completed in October of 2002.

In addition to providing the finest in medical care for the UConn basketball program, the Department of Sports Medicine at the University of Connecticut administers to the daily needs of 600 male and female intercollegiate student-athletes who are competing in 24 different varsity programs.

The Department of Sports Medicine at the University of Connecticut plays a critical role in assuring that all UConn student-athletes have 24-hour access to the finest medical support and quality health care possible. Through patient care and ongoing research and education, the department continues to provide Husky teams a competitive edge from the medical perspective.

Strength & Conditioning Program

Andrea Hudy
Associate Head Strength & Conditioning Coach

Jerry Martin
Head Strength & Conditioning Coach

The strength and conditioning program for University of Connecticut is under the direction of Strength and Conditioning Coordinator, Jerry Martin, M.A., CSCS. Coach Martin is in his 14th year at UConn. He has been a finalist for the National Strength Coach of the Year Award (1994 and 2001).

Heading up the strength and conditioning efforts for women's basketball team is Associate Head Strength and Conditioning Coach, Andrea Hudy, MA, CSCS. Coach Hudy is in her 10th year at UConn.

Martin and Hudy supervise a strength and conditioning program for each individual athlete.

It is the goal to provide each student-athlete with personalized instruction during a workout that is tailored to meet the demands of each sport and position. Each student-athlete is provided with this opportunity to enhance his athletic performance through proper strength training and conditioning until he has fulfilled his athletic potential.

Specific testing is performed on each player to monitor progress in power, strength, and conditioning. These tests provide the coaches and medical staff with an accurate athletic profile on each basketball player.

Each member of the strength and conditioning staff currently holds or is working towards a masters degree in kinesiology, biomechanics, physiology or another related field. All staff members are certified by the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) as Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialists (CSCS) and are encouraged to be certified by the United States of America Weightlifting (USAW) to teach Olympic style lifts.

The UConn Club

We're scoring big at UConn with the help of some extraordinary players. Although they never set foot on our playing fields, these team members give us something special – their support.

As members of The UConn Club, and contributors to the UConn Athletic Development Fund, they are keeping the Husky spirit alive.

The goals of The UConn Club and the UConn Athletic Development Fund are simple – to provide financial support for Connecticut's 24 intercollegiate teams and over 600 student-athletes. When donors sign on with the Huskies, they're making an investment that will pay off in great seasons and outstanding student-athletes.

One of the many ways UConn Club members are helping is through the UConn Athletic Development Fund's Endowed Scholarship Program. In the 2003-2004 academic year, the University of Connecticut Division of Athletics will award many endowed scholarships to benefit numerous Husky student-athletes.

Hartford Civic Center

The Hartford Civic Center has become a friendly "second home" for the University of Connecticut women's basketball program.

During the past seven seasons, UConn has played 29 games in the spacious Hartford Civic Center and the Huskies of head coach Geno Auriemma are a spotless 29-0 in those contests. Each of those 29 games have been played as single games. Prior to the first of those 29 games (January 5, 1997 against arch-rival Tennessee), the Connecticut women's basketball program had not played in Hartford for eight years.

From 1980 to 1989, the UConn women's basketball program had played nine games in the Hartford Civic Center, but each of those contests were part of college basketball doubleheaders with the UConn men's basketball program.

In the nine "doubleheader" games, the UConn women's program posted a 5-4 record. Since establishing itself as a recognized national power in major college women's basketball and returning to Hartford for selected appearances, Connecticut has added the 29 "single game" wins in Hartford and stands at 34-4 overall in 38 appearances in the building.

In fact, UConn will carry a 32-game Hartford Civic Center winning streak into the 2003-04 season during which the Huskies will have a record eight "home dates" scheduled in Hartford.

The Huskies will open the 2003-04 season with an exhibition game against the NWBL All-Stars on November 18. UConn will then play five non-conference regular season opponents leading into BIG EAST conference play. On November 25, Connecticut will play host to Florida State and then days later on November 30, Holy Cross will travel south for a game. Arizona State will visit the Civic Center on December 18, and North Carolina State will close out the month on December 29. One of the most anticipated games of the year will be against Duke, televised nationally on CBS, on January 3. The Civic Center will also play host to the 2004 BIG EAST Championship and as the East Region site for the 2004 NCAA Tournament.

Boston College will be the Huskies BIG EAST opener at the Civic Center on January 17, and then in a double header with the UConn men, the Huskies will host Rutgers in the day's earlier game. Pittsburgh will be the only other BIG EAST squad to play in Hartford on February 17.

In 2002-03, UConn played a then record-high seven games at the Hartford Civic Center, in front of sold-out crowds. The Huskies defeated Southern California (68-44), St. Joseph's (82-48), Tennessee (63-62 ot), Rutgers (67-62), Georgetown (72-49), Syracuse (75-51) and West Virginia (78-58. UConn broke the NCAA Division I record for consecutive wins (55 at the time) against Georgetown on January 18 on the Civic Center court.

In its 29 appearances in Hartford during the past seven seasons, UConn has played before 470,939 fans. Twenty of the games have been complete sellouts of 16,294 each and the average crowd for Connecticut women's basketball in Hartford since 1997 has been 16,239. Included in the 16 consecutive victories are impressive triumphs over nationally-ranked powers Tennessee (in 1996-97, 2000-01, 2002-03), Georgia (2000-01), Old Dominion (in 1997-98 and 1999-00), Rutgers (1999-00), and Notre Dame (1999-00).

Gampel Pavilion

Since its opening in January of 1990, the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion has played an important role in helping build women's basketball at the University of Connecticut into one of the truly elite major programs in all of college basketball.

In 14 seasons in Gampel Pavilion, head coach Geno Auriemma and his Connecticut Basketball teams have posted a stunning 195-15 overall record (92.9% winning effort). Included in that overall record is a 95-7 mark against BIG EAST Conference opponents (regular season and tournament play) and an 80-8 mark against non-league foes (regular season and NCAA play).

Since the start of the 1993-94 season, the Huskies have posted a phenomenal overall record of 151-3 in regular season and tournament games played in the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion and in seven of those eight seasons UConn has been unbeaten on its home court in Storrs.

In addition to the remarkable success rate the Huskies have enjoyed in the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion, Connecticut Basketball in Storrs has attracted the crowds.

UConn women's basketball experienced its first-ever "sellout" of 8,241 fans in Gampel Pavilion on February 20, 1993 when the Huskies dropped a 68-54 nationally-televised (CBS Sports) decision to defending national champion Stanford.

The next season, 1993-94, Connecticut would have five sellouts at home, setting the stage for the national championship year of 1994-95.

During the stunning 35-0 perfect season of 1994-95, which culminated with an NCAA National Championship for UConn women's basketball, Geno Auriemma and the Huskies played before 12 "sellouts" in Gampel Pavilion and in 1995-96 the Huskies were sold out for 17 of 19 home games.

Prior to the 1996-97 season, Gampel Pavilion's seating capacity increased from 8,241 to 10,027, making the facility the largest on-campus basketball arena in the Northeast.

During the 1996-97 and 1997-98 seasons, 22 more sellouts were recorded in Gampel Pavilion by the Connecticut women's basketball team.

Starting with the Rutgers game in Gampel Pavilion on December 31, 1997, 72 consecutive UConn women's basketball games at Gampel (regular season and post-season play) have been sold out during the past three seasons.

During UConn's 1999-2000 national championship season, all 16 games played in the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion in Storrs (11 regular season, 3 BIG EAST, 2 NCAA) were sellouts. In 1998-99, all 13 UConn women's basketball home games played in the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion were sold out.

In 2000-01, the Huskies posted their fifth undefeated season in Gampel Pavilion, posting a 14-0 record at home, including a 3-0 record in the BIG EAST Tournament en route to the team's tenth BIG EAST crown. All 14 contests were sellouts.

In 2002-03, after renovations to Gampel Pavilion, the seating capacity expanded to 10,167 when the end zone seats were made permanent. The Huskies had six regular season contests at Gampel Pavilion in 2002-03, plus two NCAA Tournament game. The team went an untarnished 8-0.

In all, there have been 118 sellouts for Connecticut women's basketball games in Gampel Pavilion against collegiate opposition during the past 10 years and UConn's record in those games is 119-3.

In addition to its regular season success in Gampel Pavilion, Connecticut has also performed superbly in the building during post-season competition.

The Huskies have won four BIG EAST Tournament titles in the Gampel Pavilion (1994, 1996, 1997, 2000, 2001) and UConn is a perfect 86-0 against BIG EAST Conference opponents in Gampel Pavilion during the past 10 seasons (the last UConn loss in Storrs to a BIG EAST team took place on February 27, 1993, a 64-62 loss to Georgetown).

In the NCAA Championship, Connecticut is 24-2 overall in Gampel Pavilion and the Huskies have hosted NCAA Tournament competition every season (14 years) since the opening of the building. UConn is riding a 22-game winning streak in NCAA games at home during the past nine seasons.

In 2003-04, the Huskies have seven regular season contests and an exhibition game at Gampel Pavilion. Included in the seven games is five BIG EAST regular season games.

UCONN TOPS AMONG ATTENDANCE LEADERS

The Connecticut women's basketball program ranks No. 2 nationally in home games total attendance during the past nine years, falling just short of the No. 1 spot held by Tennessee. The Huskies held the top spot through six years and were the first women's basketball team to consistently boast sellout crowds (10,167 in Gampel Pavilion and 16,294 in the Hartford Civic Center). With advance sellouts throughout the home season in 2002-03 and the same expected for all the Husky home games in the 2003-04 season, UConn's attendance numbers should remain consistent for years to come.

Since the 1993-94 season, UConn has played before 1,692,107 fans in 183 home games (154 in the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion and 29 in the Hartford Civic Center).

UConn vaulted into the No. 1 spot nationally at the conclusion of the 1996-97 season after the Huskies attracted a then-national single-season record 198,998 fans to 19 home dates.

Tennessee moved to the No. 1 spot in total home court attendance for the past eight years after playing all their home games in the Thompson Boling Arena (24,525).

"Connecticut women's basketball is unique. The Huskies have a bond between the entire state allowing us to sell out game after game like no other team can. We definitely have the best fans of any team in the country. The numbers don't lie. Our fans are special to us and we love playing to a full house."
Head Coach Geno Auriemma

Stand Until They Score

Exuberant UConn fans are known for supporting their teams in the way known as "Huskymania". Part of "Huskymania" includes the standing and rhythmic clapping by fans until UConn scores its first basket of the first and second halves.

"UConn Husky"
Fight Song

"UConn Husky" is the fight song of the school. It was written in the mid-1930's by Herb France, who was UConn's Director of Music until the mid-1950's. The song is widely known for its playing at different sporting events, but got "out of this world" attention in October of 1989 when it was played aboard NASA's Space Shuttle to wake up the shuttle astronauts. Among those astronauts on the mission was Franklin Chang-Diaz, a 1973 UConn graduate.

UConn Husky,
Symbol of might to the foe.
Fight, fight Connecticut,
It's victory, let's go!
Connecticut UConn Husky,
Do it again for the white and blue,
So go, go, go, go, Connecticut,
Connecticut U.

C-O-N-N-E-C-T-I-C-U-T, Connecticut,
Connecticut Husky,
Connecticut Husky,
Connecticut C-O-N-N-U, Fight!

The Tip-Off Club

In its 12th year of existence, the UConn women's basketball Tip-Off Club has grown to an organization of nearly 1,200 enthusiastic members. The Tip-Off Club is comprised of alumni, fans, parents and supporters of the Husky program. Tip-Off Club events include fundraising ventures, pre-game and post-game receptions and supporting bus trips to away games.

Jonathan and the Husky Mascot

The official mascot of the University of Connecticut is a Siberian Husky dog named Jonathan. The first Husky dog came to the Storrs campus in December of 1934 and the puppy was named for Jonathan Trumbull, Governor of Connecticut during the Revolutionary War. Jonathan I's pedigree was traced back to include a great-grandfather who traveled to the North Pole with Admiral Richard E. Byrd in 1909. Jonathan III was with Admiral Byrd when he undertook "Operation High Jump" to the Antarctic in 1946-47.

In 2001, the UConn community welcomed the newest Husky dog, Jonathan XII, to the Storrs campus. A costumed Husky mascot has gained tremendous popularity over the past years, and makes numerous public appearances on behalf of the University.

School Colors

The official colors of the University of Connecticut are national flag blue and white. To be specific, the blue is listed as PMS 289, a shade of navy.

Huskies Pass Million

Mark in Gampel

There is hard proof that Huskymania is alive and well in Connecticut.

Since the Harry A. Gampel Pavilion opened in January 1990, over one million women's basketball fans have flocked to see the Huskies play.

In 1998-99, the Huskies hit the million mark. On February 17, 1999, the regular season finale against Providence, UConn fans celebrated the accomplishment.

The total number of fans who have attended a Husky women's game in Gampel stands at 1,630,520 heading into the 2003-04 season.

First Class Travel

TOURING EUROPE

During the summer of 1999, UConn opened its 2000 National Championship run with a tour of Europe. The team was overseas for a 13-day, five-game tour, travelling through France, Belgium and Italy. The Huskies finished the European tour 3-2 overall against some of the best clubs Europe had to offer.

The Huskies also visited Europe (France, Belgium and Italy) prior to UConn's 1995 title run in August of 1994. The team made an impressive showing with a 4-1 record during the five-game exhibition tour.

UConn is planning another overseas tour for the summer of 2003.
